Location & Local Information

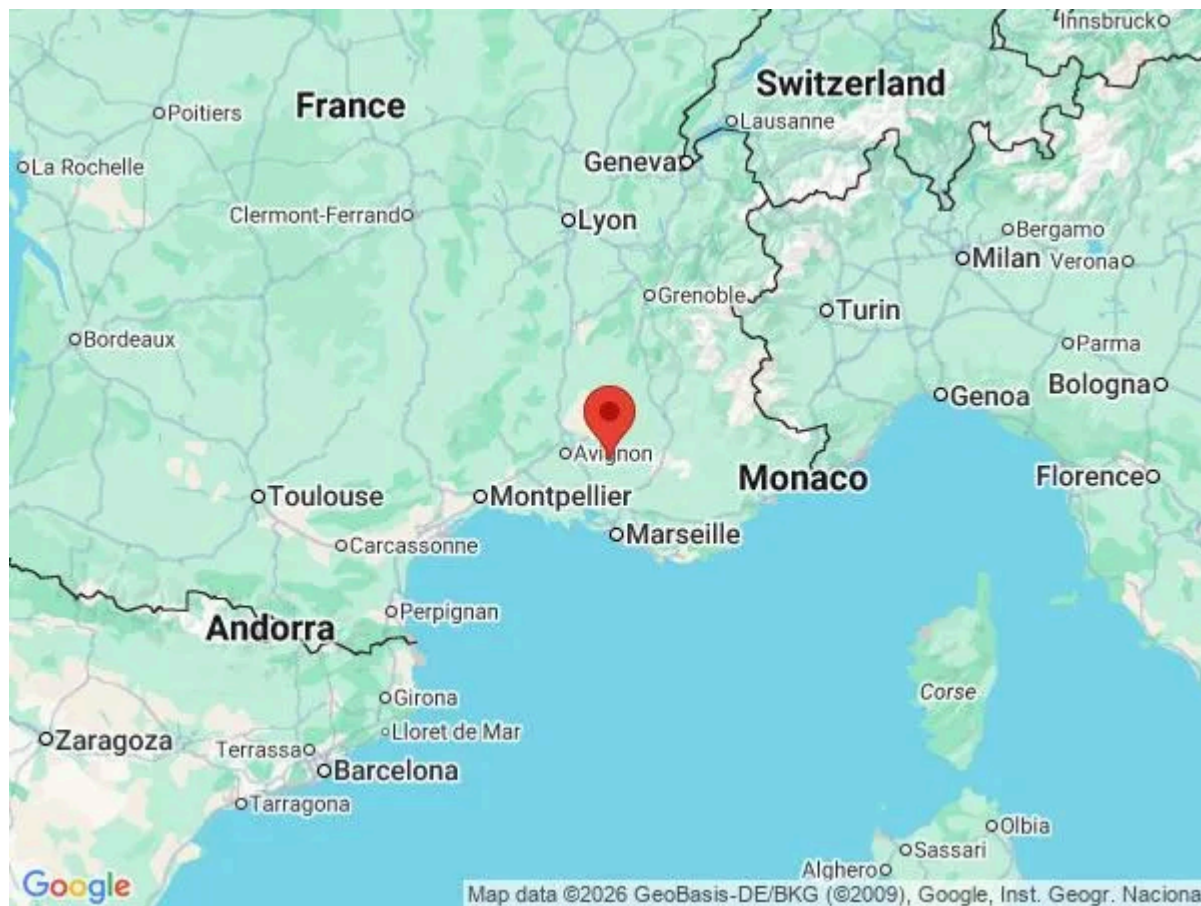

Maison Cocteau enjoys the most wonderful views of the Luberon valley, set on a hillside within walking distance from the idyllic village of Roussillon.

Roussillon is officially classified as one of France's 'Plus Beaux Villages' and it is well known for its ochre-coloured houses, perched on the ridge of a red-hued cliff. You can follow the country road up to the village (no pavement until you reach the village's approach) in around 1.6km, admiring towering pine trees and verdant landscapes as you ascend. Wander into the historic heart of the village; it's an incredible place to explore and boasts several restaurants and the most stunning views. The weekly market takes place on a Thursday morning.

Keen walkers can appreciate the beautiful scenery by following one of the two marked paths through the dusty red cliffs, Le Sentier des Ogres, and there are even more challenging hikes near the village and beyond towards Le Colorado de Rustrel. The Luberon also offers some fantastic cycling opportunities, rock-climbing near Buoux and of course wine-tasting across Luberon vineyards and wineries, especially close to Ménerbes and Lourmarin.

Indeed, Ménerbes (15km) is another picture-perfect village to explore, made especially famous by Peter Mayle's 'A Year in Provence', as are the iconic perched villages of Bonnieux (12km), Lacoste (12km) and Gordes (11km). Look out for inviting restaurant terraces, pretty markets and a wealth of historic charm surrounded by woodland, cherry orchards and vineyards below. The historic town of Apt (12km) hosts a fantastic Saturday morning market showcasing all sorts of regional delights, the largest market in the region.

Discover yet more of Provence whether you choose to spend the day in Aix-en-Provence (63km), perhaps stopping off in Lourmarin (24km) en route, or follow Van Gogh's footsteps in Saint-Rémy-de-Provence (51km) with its art galleries and atmospheric Wednesday morning market.

The UNESCO World Heritage sites of Avignon (47km) are only an hour away by car or venture north to the foothills of Mont Ventoux and the lavender fields of Sault (34km). Not forgetting the gorgeous town of L'Isle-sur-la-Sorgue (26km) and the hiking, canoeing and kayaking opportunities around Fontaine-de-Vaucluse (26km).
