Overview

Set amidst wild, snowy peaks, Apartment Arpasson 9 is a contemporary four-bedroom apartment for nine guests in Méribel, France. Located in the valley of Les Allues, one of the world's largest and most charming ski neighbourhoods, it's at a striking distance from tree-lined pistes and modern ski lifts. Close to many shops and the teeming Morel chairlift, it's a haven for adventure junkies and winter sport enthusiasts.

Inside, the home tastefully blends the storybook charm of a winter cabin with graceful interiors. Soothing wooden accents, white-washed furnishing and creamy walls go perfectly with the surroundings, making you feel one with nature.

Spend leisurely hours on the spacious outdoor deck, which looks as dreamy in soft daylight as it does covered in pillowy snow.

The living area is bright and inviting — with all the facilities of modern living. Large glass doors allow plenty of natural light. A comfy refuge after a hard day of skiing, it features a roaring fireplace and Cathedral-style decor. Make yourself cosy on fur seats and catch up on your favourite Netflix series.

The kitchen is open-plan and well-designed. It includes a dishwasher, refrigerator, blender and coffee machine.

All bedrooms guarantee a restful night's sleep. While three have double beds, two of them come with en-suite bathrooms. The fourth bedroom has a bunk bed, a pull-out bed, and an en-suite bathroom. A private balcony is available, from where you can savour marvellous views while sipping your morning coffee. Make most of the cosy tub provided to relax for hours.
