Location & Local Information

Casa Metge Vidal is just a short walk from the center of Pollensa, a town known for its rich history and lively atmosphere.

One of the area's most famous landmarks is Puig de Maria, located just over five minutes from the villa. At the top of this 330-meter hill sits a 14th-century monastery, originally built as a shrine to the Virgin Mary. Redesigned in the 18th century with Gothic and Baroque influences, it offers a rewarding 30-minute hike with spectacular panoramic views.

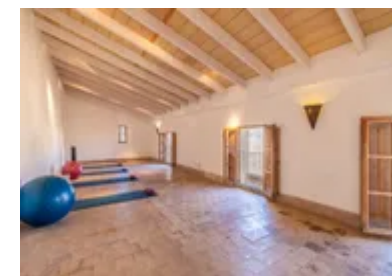

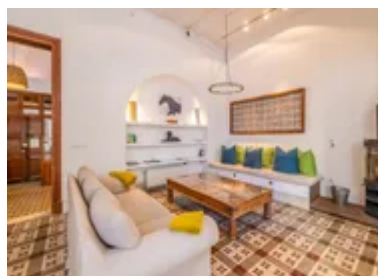

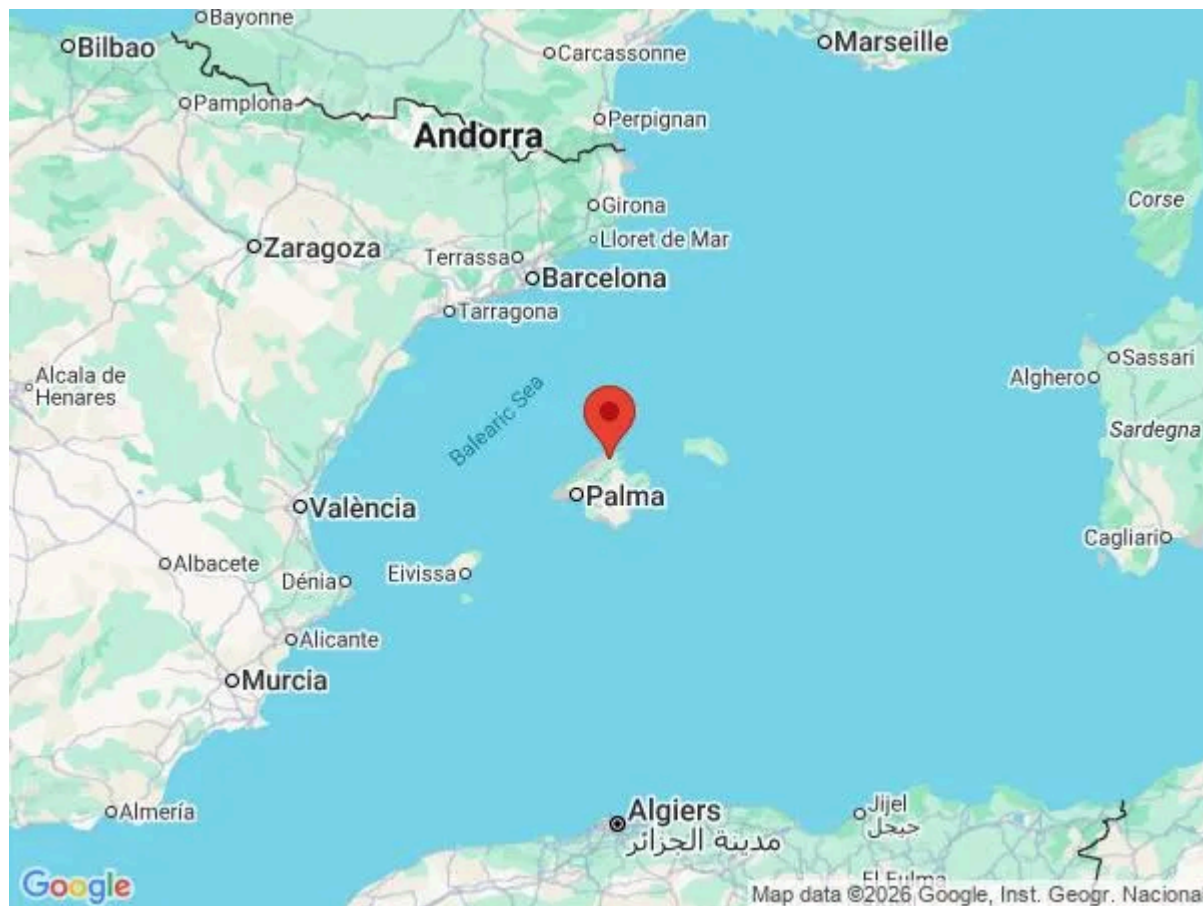

For a taste of local culture, visit the Pollensa Market, just minutes from the villa. With over 300 stalls, it's the perfect place to browse handmade jewellery, bags, and souvenirs. Fresh local produce is also available, ideal for preparing meals back at the villa. The market runs every Sunday from 8 am to 1:30 pm (times may vary).

If you're interested in history, the Alzinaret Caves, 10 minutes away, date back to 1600 BC. Discovered in 1927, they offer a fascinating look into the region's past.

For a beach day, Puerto Pollensa is a short drive away. Its golden sands and calm waters are ideal for swimming and water sports, with beachfront restaurants perfect for a seaside meal.
