

Chalet Isaac

Region: Portes du Soleil Sleeps: 4

Overview

Tucked away in the picturesque ski resort of Morzine, Chalet Isaac is a welcoming retreat for up to four guests in the world-famous Portes du Soleil ski area. Blending Savoyard character with modern comfort, Chalet Isaac has been lovingly restored to create a cosy and inviting space, ideal for families or small groups in search of a true Alpine escape. Its enviable location places you within easy reach of both the bustling town centre and the slopes, making it a perfect base in every season.

The first floor of Chalet Isaac is dedicated to relaxed living. An open-plan lounge sits beneath high vaulted ceilings with exposed timber beams, filling the space with warmth and charm. Thoughtfully designed with young families in mind, the living area also includes a comfortable sofa bed, offering flexibility for extra sleeping arrangements when needed. The tasteful décor reflects the natural beauty of the mountains, while the balcony provides a peaceful spot to enjoy morning sunshine or evening views. A fully equipped kitchen allows guests to prepare meals with fresh local produce, and the adjoining dining area creates a homely setting to gather together.

On the ground floor, Chalet Isaac features a family bedroom with double bunk beds, sleeping four in comfort. A modern bathroom with walk-in shower and laundry facilities adds convenience, while private parking and ski storage make your stay seamless from start to finish.

Just 300 metres from Morzine's lively centre and less than a kilometre from the nearest ski lift, Chalet Isaac is ideally placed for both winter sports and summer adventures. Shuttle services run regularly in peak seasons, offering easy access to the vast Portes du Soleil. Whether you are here for skiing, hiking, or simply to soak up the Alpine atmosphere, Chalet Isaac provides a restful haven in the heart of the French Alps.

Location & Local Information

Chalet Isaac offers guests a truly authentic Alpine escape, just a short stroll from the charming town of Morzine. Perfectly located within the vast Portes du Soleil area, which caters to every level of skier, from beginners finding their feet on gentle nursery slopes to seasoned adventurers seeking thrilling descents and long, scenic runs that cross breathtaking mountain landscapes.

Only a 15-minute walk from Chalet Isaac, the Télécabine du Pléney carries you high above the village, where panoramic views stretch across the valley to Mont Blanc. Families will appreciate the safe, well-designed slopes in Morzine itself, while those looking for variety can enjoy the wealth of blue and red runs spread across the Portes du Soleil. For those who prefer a slower pace, there are also kilometres of cross-country trails and snowshoe routes, each offering a peaceful way to experience the beauty of the Alps.

Beyond the slopes, Morzine is alive with character and charm. Food lovers can indulge in everything from hearty Savoyard specialities to refined French cuisine, while après-ski ranges from cosy fireside inns to lively bars in the heart of town.

In summer, Chalet Isaac becomes the gateway to a different kind of adventure. Rolling meadows and forest trails invite walkers and cyclists, while Lake Montriond and the nearby Brochaux Waterfall offer tranquil settings for swimming, picnics and days spent in the sunshine. The year round appeal of the Portes du Soleil area is evident, with Chalet Isaac at the heart of it all.
