There are wonderful dining options at the Landings, with The Palms serving internationally inspired local dishes, the Beach Club offering casual all-day dining and the Callaloo Beach bar and grill with a farm-to-table concept. To glide you into the Caribbean vibe, relax with a rum punch or three at the Turquoise Beach Bar, or refined drinkers should head to the Viscount Lounge, which offers a selection of fine wines, spirits and champagnes.

There is plenty of onsite entertainment, so whether sunrise yoga calls to you or how to make a rum punch is more your style, there is sure to be something that appeals.

If you can bear to venture out of your exclusive paradise, you can enjoy a taste of history at Pigeon Island National Park, located across the causeway, only 10 minutes from The Landings Resort.
