The nearby Chamois gondola provides effortless access to the Rochebrune ski area, linking directly to Mont d'Arbois and beyond into the vast Evasion Mont-Blanc network with over three hundred kilometres of pistes to explore. Ideal for beginners and intermediates, Rochebrune's gentle blues and meandering forest runs create a relaxed environment for perfecting your turns, while seasoned skiers can venture higher for thrilling red and black descents or off-piste adventures around Côte 2000.

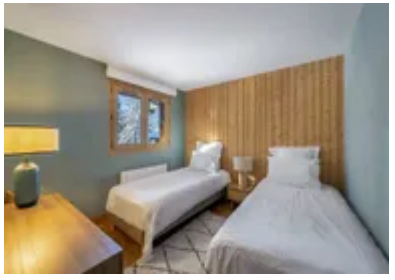

As the snow melts, Megève transforms into a summer haven of mountain trails, alpine meadows and crystal-clear lakes. What we love

- Apartment Guilia's setting, just a stone's throw from the Chamois gondola makes it the ideal base for skiers looking to be close to the slopes
- Along with the proximity to the slopes, Apartment Guilia offers easy access to boutique shopping and Michelin-starred dining in Megève
- Ideal year-round escape, from snowy slopes in winter to hiking and cycling trails in summer.

What you should know...

- While near the lifts, it is not ski-in/ski-out – around a 4-minute walk to the Chamois gondola.
- Parking is outdoors and not covered, so it's worth allowing time to clear the car of snow before heading out on winter mornings
- The living area features an exposed wood-burning stove, therefore please take care when fire is burning, especially with young children.
