Location & Local Information

Known locally as Provo, the island of Providenciales sits at the heart of the Turks and Caicos archipelago in the tropical waters of the Atlantic Ocean. Often considered the jewel of Turks and Caicos, the island captivates visitors with its lush greenery, pristine white sands and shimmering turquoise waters. This four-bedroom Acua Villa is located just a short stroll from Sunset Cove, a secluded beach with soft sands and swaying palms reserved for registered Wymara guests. At the Sunset Cove Beach Club, guests can enjoy an ocean pool, tennis courts, spa facilities with a sauna and hot tub, an open-air games room and a fitness area offering private classes, while additional amenities await at the nearby Wymara Resort on Grace Bay Beach. Providenciales is a paradise for water sports, from paddle boarding and sea kayaking to parasailing above the vibrant barrier reef. Boat trips offer the chance to explore nearby islands and spot humpback whales or Atlantic bottlenose dolphins, while sunset cruises reveal the magical glow worm phenomenon along the Caicos Banks.
