Location & Local Information

Known locally as Provo, the island of Providenciales sits at the heart of the Turks and Caicos archipelago in the tropical waters of the Atlantic Ocean. Widely considered the jewel of Turks and Caicos, the island enchants visitors with lush greenery, pristine white sand beaches and dazzling turquoise waters. This four bedroom amuse villa is located just a short stroll from Sunset Cove, a secluded stretch of beach reserved for Wymara guests. At the nearby Sunset Cove Beach Club, guests can enjoy an ocean pool, tennis courts, spa facilities with sauna and hot tub, an open air games room and a fitness area offering private classes. Additional resort facilities are available at the Wymara Resort, only a five minute drive away on the famous Grace Bay Beach. Providenciales is also a paradise for water sports lovers, with paddle boarding, sea kayaking and parasailing offering unforgettable views of the island and its vibrant barrier reef. Private boat trips allow guests to explore nearby islands while spotting humpback whales or Atlantic bottlenose dolphins. For a truly unique experience, sunset cruises along the Caicos Banks reveal the magical glow worm phenomenon, when millions of tiny creatures illuminate the water with flashes of green light. Visitors can also discover the fascinating Conch Bar Caves on Middle Caicos, where limestone chambers, underground lakes and striking stalactites offer a glimpse into the islands' natural beauty and cultural history. After days spent exploring, unwind with a spa treatment, beachfront dining or a private chef experience arranged through the Wymara Resort.
