Ideal for a couple, this is a truly heavenly escape for those who crave peace, calm but also adventure should that be what you seek. Whether you're a sun worshipper, water baby, keen golfer or adrenaline junkie, there's no end to what you can do on this Eden-like island. You're also close to the ocean with Grace Bay Beach firmly on your doorstep.

The open-plan design of Pool Paradise allows you to cook up a storm in your own fully equipped kitchenette, snuggle up in the seating area, relax in your king suite and enjoy pool-side views out on the terrace.

There are numerous comforts to enjoy here including a daily hearty American breakfast. With a kitchen kitted out with Liebherr, Gaggenau and Bosch appliances, you can also enjoy rustling up your own favourite treats.

The Turks and Caicos Islands, located in the Caribbean, are an archipelago of 40 islands and cays. A truly remote location, only eight of these islands are inhabited by people. The big draw, the unique selling point of the location, are its opulent waters, beautiful white sand beaches and aquatic life bursting forth from unique coral reefs. Water babies adore this paradise, but so do sun stalkers, readers and relaxers and poolside recliners. For those seeking a slightly more adventurous experience, there's also opportunities to dive, snorkel and enjoy a range of water sports.

At your front door you'll find the lovely Grace Bay, a beautiful place to whittle away the days and reconnect with a quieter pace of life. At the complex, enjoy the poolside and beachfront restaurants, treat yourself at the spa, work out at the gym, have a drink at the bar and swim laps of the infinity pool.

Here, the world is your oyster.

Location & Local Information

Based on the Wymara resort on the island Providenciales in the Turks and Caicos Islands, you're a mere stone's throw from Grace Bay Beach which calls travellers much like a siren summons sailors to its white-sand beach and turquoise waters. It continues to be ranked one of the world's most beautiful beaches. So, whether you like to soak in the sun, go snorkelling, diving or taking to the water by daredevil water sports, you'll find plenty to do, or not do, as the case may be!

The resort itself could keep you occupied for the entirety of your trip. Enjoy the vast infinity pool, read a book, enjoy seafood at the beachside restaurant or an assortment of other delicacies at the poolside bar, treat yourself at the spa or work on your fitness at the gym.

Outside of the resort, you might want to explore the coral gardens reef which forms part of the Princess Alexandra National Park. This area offers wonderful opportunities to snorkel, dive, and take in the astonishing natural beauty surrounding you. Renowned for its unique coral formations, thriving marine life and clear waters, this is a must see for any bucket list.

Back on dry land, take some time to head to the Provo Golf Club, which you'll find close by. Here you can enjoy an 18-hole golf course and be truly challenged whether you're a golf pro or a newbie. Surrounded by verdant nature, this is an unmissable experience whether you're a lifelong golfer or just want to give it a try.

Why not head to Bight Park? This is a wonderfully picturesque, family-friendly area with playgrounds and an array of walking routes - we suggest packing a picnic and taking it all in. Over at Graceway Plaza, you can enjoy a different type of experience. Try shopping at any of the lovely boutiques, enjoy a coffee at a delightful cafe or treat your taste buds to a range of cuisines. You can also visit the grocery store and make some fresh local purchases to whip something tasty up for dinner back at your holiday home.

Further afield, fans of boating and sailing will want to visit Turtle Cove Marina, a place where you can charter a boat, fish, and yes, enjoy even more water sports. Chalk Sound National Park allows you to take in a lush lagoon peppered with islands and mangroves. You can take it all in from the shore or you can try your hand at paddle boarding or kayaking making for a more immersive way of exploring the area. Both can be rented on-site.

Try snorkelling or diving at Coral Gardens and Smith’s Reef which both offer ample opportunity to explore the beauty living beneath the water.

Foodies will know that conch, a type of sea snail, is used throughout the cuisine on the island. Head to Conch Farm to learn more about these creatures and their role on the island. How did they become such a staple? What makes them such a popular accompaniment to so many delicacies?

If you happen to be visiting between January and April, you’ll likely witness whales during their migration. This is an unmissable experience.

You might also want to take in the history and culture of the island with a visit to Cockburn Town on Grand Turk – a great opportunity to learn about the indigenous Lucayan people who initially called the island home.

With ample culture, history and beauty, there’s plenty to enjoy, whatever your preference.

What we love

- We loved the conch farm – getting to hold a baby conch was so lovely.
- The great big daily American breakfasts were just great.
- As a big history buff, I loved Cockburn Town, which we visited by ferry. It was fascinating to learn more about the history of the island.
- Grace Bay Beach – it's just amazing. What more can you say?
- I loved our place. It met all our needs and exceeded all expectations.

What you should know...

- There are many ATMs on the island, but having cash on your person is advised for smaller establishments. The island accepts payment in US dollars.
- Be mindful of the season. You can plan to avoid hurricane season and coincide with whale migration season.
- Mosquitoes seem to love the island just as much as we do. Bring bug spray, and remember that mosquitoes are most active at dusk and dawn.
- To avoid disappointment book activities and restaurants in advance, especially during the peak season (typically December to April).
- Wymara Resort is cashless, none of the outlets will accept cash, only card payments.
