What we love

- The view of Grace Bay Beach was unbeatable. It's one of the most beautiful in the world, and it was there for us to look at all day every day.
- We loved the food, a real mix of African, Caribbean and European. The fish dishes at the restaurant were excellent.
- We rode horses along the beach in the cool morning hours. It was the best way to begin a day.
- I just loved everything about the studio. Can I stay forever please?

What you should know...

- Always have cash with you (establishments take US dollars) so you can make a purchase in any of the smaller establishments.
- Want to see whales? Check out the season. Whales tend to migrate between January and April. January and February are the key months if you want to almost be guaranteed a sighting.
- Pack clothing with long sleeves and bring the bug spray. The mosquitos love the island as much as we do!
- Heading to the island during peak season? Make sure you book unmissable experiences before you fly to avoid disappointment.
- Wymara Resort is cashless, none of the outlets will accept cash, only card payments.
