What you should know...

- As Apartment Maurice is located in the heart of Tignes, you may occasionally hear noise from other visitors to the resort during your stay.
- The apartment is situated on an upper level of its building with no elevator access which may not be suitable for guests with mobility issues.
- Tignes is a popular resort which means it can get crowded during peak holiday periods, so if you prefer a quieter and more secluded atmosphere, it's advisable to plan your visit around peak dates.
