Apartment Marcel

Region: 3 Valleys Sleeps: 6

Overview

Apartment Marcel is a modern and comfortable base in the heart of Courchevel Village, offering everything a family needs for a straightforward ski holiday. The apartment combines clean contemporary styling with practical touches.

The open plan living area is bright and welcoming, with full height windows that lead out to a furnished terrace where you can enjoy the fresh mountain air. Inside, a soft palette of grey and natural wood creates a calm atmosphere throughout the space. The living area includes a cosy sofa facing the television and Bose sound system, while the dining table sits beside the fully equipped kitchen. With an oven, microwave, dishwasher and coffee machine, the layout works well for relaxed meals after skiing.

The sleeping arrangements suit a family of six, with a master bedroom featuring a king size bed and an ensuite shower room. The second bedroom is designed for children, offering two sets of bunk beds and a television. A family bathroom with a bathtub and double vanity, along with a separate WC, completes the layout. The apartment also includes useful amenities such as a washing and drying machine, dedicated ski locker and a private parking space in the residence garage.

Guests staying at Apartment Marcel benefit from access to the building's shared fitness studio, sauna and steam room. Treatments can also be arranged in the residence spa, perfect for unwinding after a day on the slopes. With the nearest piste only a short walk away and the Grangettes lift within easy reach, days on the mountain are simple and stress free. Apartment Marcel is a solid choice for families looking for comfort, convenience and easy access to the Three Valleys.

Location & Local Information

Apartment Marcel sits in a prime position within Courchevel Village, offering quick access to the slopes and the essential amenities that make a ski trip run smoothly. The residence is set in the centre of the resort, where everything is within a short walk, including local shops, a supermarket and several restaurants. The Tovets piste is close by, which means you can reach the snow within minutes, while the Grangettes lift is only a short walk away and links directly with Courchevel 1850 and the wider Three Valleys ski area. With more than six hundred kilometres of runs to explore, skiers of all levels will find plenty to enjoy.

For families, the village has a friendly feel with a ski school nearby. The local Tuesday market adds a touch of French character, with regional cheeses and cured meats that are perfect for stocking up the kitchen. If you want a break from skiing, the Aquamotion complex is easy to reach and offers pools, slides and wellness areas. Courchevel Village also provides simple access to the other neighbouring resorts, whether you want to explore more slopes, enjoy après ski or discover the views from higher up the valley.
