

Apartment Cyclamen

Region: 3 Valleys Sleeps: 8

Overview

Apartment Cyclamen offers a smart and comfortable base in the heart of Courchevel Village, placing you close to the slopes and within easy reach of the lifts that link into the wider Three Valleys. Set within a modern residence, the apartment delivers a warm and practical retreat after active days in the mountains.

The living area is bright and well proportioned, framed by large windows that look toward the surrounding peaks. Soft timber tones and stone detailing give the space a calm alpine feel, paired with simple, modern furnishings that keep everything relaxed. The balcony provides a spot to enjoy the fresh air, while inside the seating area is ideal for unwinding with a drink after skiing. The kitchen is neatly equipped for everyday cooking, including useful extras such as a Nespresso machine, and the dining table has plenty of room for shared meals and easy evenings together.

Four ensuite bedrooms are arranged to offer a straightforward and restful layout for a group of up to eight. Each bedroom features a double bed and its own bathroom. The main suite includes a bathtub that is welcome at the end of a long ski day.

The residence facilities add to the appeal. Guests have access to a shared fitness room, sauna and steam room, giving you options for recovery or gentle training during your stay. There is a ski locker for storing equipment and three underground parking spaces which are very helpful in peak season.

Apartment Cyclamen suits guests seeking a convenient and comfortable base with strong access to Courchevel's slopes, shops and dining, all within a simple walk from the door.

Location & Local Information

Apartment Cyclamen sits in Courchevel Village at 1550 metres above sea level, a calm and friendly base within the wider Three Valleys. The area blends traditional chalets with smart new residences and has everything you need for an easy ski holiday, including a ski school, equipment hire and several relaxed restaurants within a short walk. Access to the slopes is straightforward. The residence is close to the piste and only a short distance from the lifts, giving you quick links into the main Courchevel sector and the full expanse of the Three Valleys.

Courchevel is known for its reliable snow cover thanks to its north-facing slopes and its broad mix of terrain. Confident skiers will find technical routes near the top of Saulire, while intermediates have long, flowing pistes across the valley. Beginners are well served with dedicated learning areas and supportive ski schools offering group and private lessons. On the mountain, a good choice of cabin restaurants and bars gives you plenty of places to break for lunch or regroup during the day.
