Location & Local Information

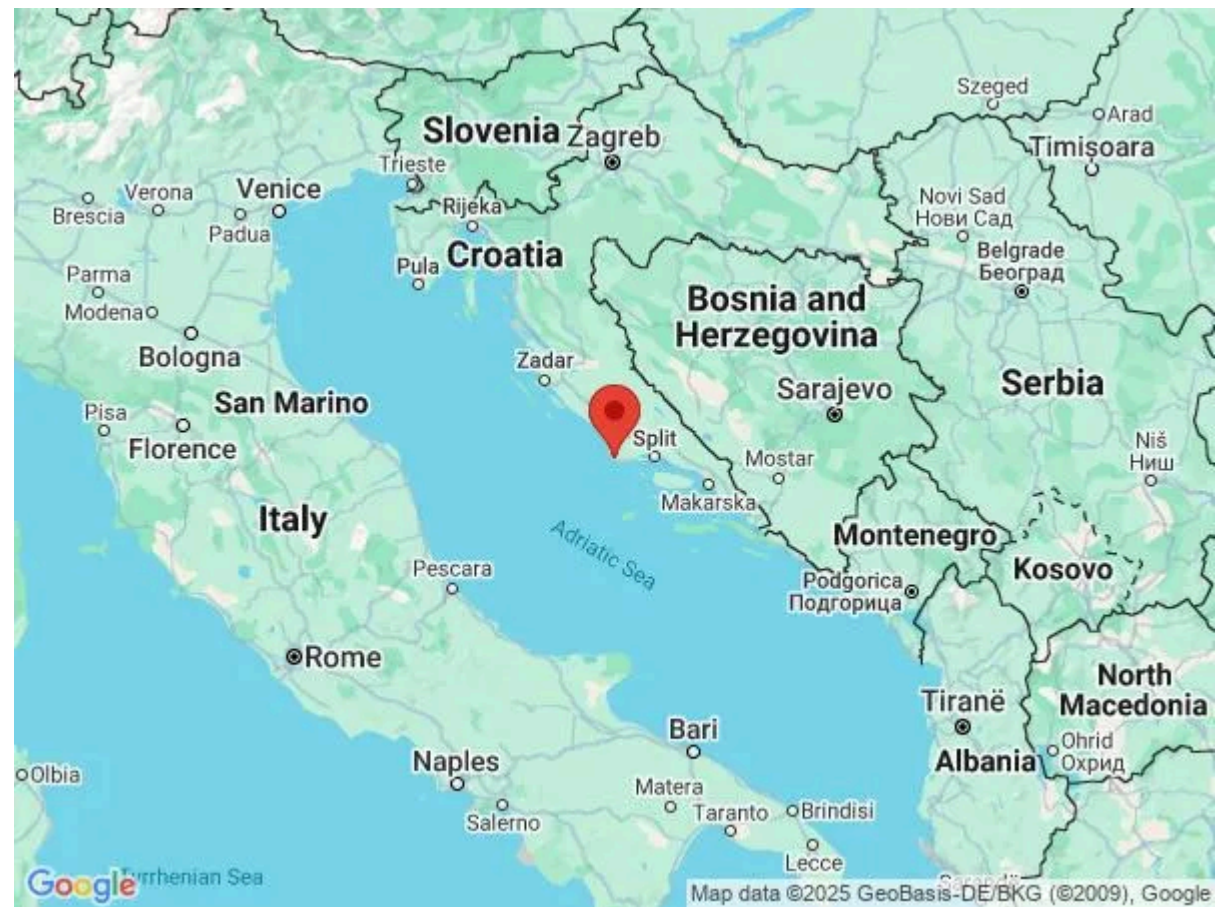

Villa Elliana is located ten minutes from the charming coastal town of Rogoznica. It is a popular destination known for its crystal clear waters, beautiful beaches, and a vibrant marina. With a rich history and quaint streets, you will find plenty to explore.

Why not visit the Dragon's Eye? This popular attraction is a saltwater, oval-shaped lake on the Gradina peninsula. Cliffs ranging anywhere from 4 to 24 metres tower flank the lake. According to legend, two brothers were fighting over land ownership. One brother tricked the other, who then, in revenge, conjured a curse and turned the land into the lake, which was home to a merciless dragon. Here you can take part in some adrenaline-fuelled activities, including cliff diving.

Or, perhaps you would like to visit The Museum in the Sea? In January of 1942, an Italian transport ship called Nuncio was brought down by a British submarine between the Mulo lighthouse and the island of Velika Smokvica. The wreck was discovered in 2008, prompting the area to be named Museum in the Sea. Diving is allowed in these waters and is a perfect activity for experienced divers.

Villa Elliana is about half an hour's drive from the historic coastal UNESCO town of Trogir. This is a place well worth visiting as it is at the top of the list of places to visit, not only in Dalmatia but in the entire Croatia!

The Trogir archipelago, dotted with islands, islets and tranquil bays, has attracted many conquerors, seafarers, and traders since ancient times. Kamerlengo Fortress is found on the southwestern tip of the island, and you will see it looming large over the town. It is possible to climb up to the height of the walls for fantastic views over the Riva, the Old Town and out to sea. Parts of the city walls, built in the 13th and 14th centuries, are still visible today on the city's southern side. You will still find the city gate built in 1593 in the middle of the city. One of its best sites is the 12th century built Cathedral of St. Lawrence. The bell tower was added two hundred years after the cathedral was constructed. It can be climbed to experience fantastic views from the top. Another must-see is the Chapel of St. John, considered the best Renaissance sight in Dalmatia. Most of Trogir's beaches are found along the Trogir Riviera, and you can rest assured you will not have to travel far for a quality beach experience.

Gradska Plaza is 1km from the centre of Trogir with a beautiful blue sea, gentle pebble beach and a bustling promenade lined with restaurants and cafes. A 15-minute stroll from the centre of Trogir is Saldun Beach. Popular with the locals, this beach has a quieter and more relaxed feel. A few short steps from the shoreline will find you greeted by sparkling blue crystal clear water, shady pine trees and naturally rocky terrain. Possibly not the best place to sunbathe, but perfect for those who love to swim, jump and dive!
