Overview

Chalet Timber is a charming and compact alpine hideaway nestled in the peaceful heart of Megève. Sleeping six across three en-suite bedrooms, it's a perfect choice for smaller groups or families looking to combine modern comfort with warm, wood-clad elegance in one of the Alps' most iconic villages.

The interiors have been thoughtfully designed with natural materials and cosy details. The open-plan living area is welcoming and stylish, featuring a built-in corner sofa and a fireplace, ideal for winding down after a day on the slopes. The adjoining kitchen is fully equipped for relaxed dinners in, while doors lead out to a furnished terrace with beautiful views over the village and surrounding peaks.

All three double bedrooms come with their own en-suite shower room, offering comfort and privacy for guests. There's also a private sauna for a little post-ski indulgence and a snug mezzanine play area perfect for younger visitors.

Guests benefit from direct underground access to the five-star services at Les Fermes de Marie, including its spa, indoor pool, gym and children's club. The Chamois ski lift lies just 550 metres away, while the boutiques, bakeries and restaurants of central Megève are within a five-minute walk. Intimate and well-appointed, Chalet Timber is a relaxed yet refined year-round escape.
