

Apartment Perugino

Region: Tuscany Sleeps: 4

Overview

Apartment Perugino is a refined and beautifully appointed two-bedroom, two-bathroom residence nestled within a 19th-century palazzo in the heart of Florence. Located on the third floor and easily accessed by lift or stairs, the apartment offers a serene retreat just steps from the city's most iconic attractions. Combining timeless elegance with modern comforts, it provides the perfect setting for couples, friends, or small families seeking both privacy and convenience during their Florentine stay.

Inside, the apartment unfolds into a sunlit living and dining space, where neutral and citrus tones are paired with chequerboard parquet floors and west-facing shuttered windows overlooking Via dei Benci. A frescoed ceiling adds a magical flourish to the room, which includes a sleek kitchenette, a circular dining table for six, and a comfortable L-shaped sofa. The principal bedroom, adorned in vibrant tangerine and azure, features a plush double bed, a walk-around closet, and access to a luxurious marble bathroom with a rain shower and standalone tub. The second bedroom, styled in soft mulberry and mauve, offers flexible sleeping arrangements and a private en-suite, making Apartment Perugino a graceful and well-equipped base for experiencing the beauty of Florence.

Location & Local Information

Set within a grand 19th-century palazzo, this sophisticated apartment offers an elegant sanctuary in the very heart of Florence's historic centre. Just moments from the iconic Uffizi Gallery, it provides the perfect blend of tranquillity and accessibility. Tucked along a quiet street lined with cafés, boutiques, and restaurants, the apartment allows you to step effortlessly into the city's vibrant life while enjoying the peaceful privacy of your own fully equipped retreat. The palazzo itself, thoughtfully restored over three years by expert craftsmen, houses a collection of stunning residences, each designed to honour the building's heritage while delivering modern Florentine luxury.

Florence, the Renaissance jewel of Tuscany, offers a wealth of cultural treasures just beyond your doorstep. Meander along the Arno River and cross the Ponte Vecchio, or gaze up at Brunelleschi's magnificent dome above the Florence Cathedral. Art lovers will revel in the masterpieces of the Uffizi, while food enthusiasts can savour traditional Tuscan dishes and discover fresh local flavours at the lively San Lorenzo Market. Whether you're drawn by the art, history, or cuisine, this elegant apartment offers an ideal home base for exploring the rich tapestry of Florence and making memories that will linger long after you leave.
