Apartment Dejana

Region: Dubrovnik City Sleeps: 6

Overview

Apartment Dejana, a delightful, joined apartment with one bedroom and two gallery rooms, offers a charming stay within the UNESCO-protected Old Town of Dubrovnik. Nestled in an attractive part of the city, this apartment provides easy access to the bustling main street Stradun, inviting visitors to immerse themselves in the vibrant nightlife, cultural events, and delectable dining options the area offers.

Upon entering the building, guests will encounter three flights of stairs leading to the third floor, where Apartment Dejana is located. Authentic stone décor and minimalist furnishings define both connected properties, making this an ideal choice for two families or groups of friends seeking to stay together while enjoying individual privacy. Each apartment has its own entrance, and they share common halls.

The first apartment within Apartment Dejana features a comfortable double bedroom and a single room on a gallery level. A well-appointed bathroom, shower, cosy living and dining area, and compact kitchen complete the living space. The second apartment overlooks a serene green garden and offers a flexible layout with the option of a double or twin bed on the gallery level. A living and dining area with a pull-out sofa bed, a bathroom, and a full kitchen make it a convenient and accommodating space for guests.

Located parallel to the main street Stradun, the apartment's proximity ensures convenient access to medieval architecture, charming coffee bars, inviting restaurants, and the lively ambience that envelops the Old Town. Within a mere three-minute walk, families can uncover a wealth of historical sites and cultural attractions, immersing themselves in the rich heritage of this storied city.

For those seeking natural beauty and relaxation, the Old Port, just a hundred meters away, offers a well-scheduled boat connection to the idyllic Lokrum Island, where lush greenery and pristine beaches await. The famous Banje beach, known for its captivating views and crystal-clear waters, is a short ten-minute stroll from the apartment, providing a perfect spot for family fun in the sun.

Apartment Dejana presents an inviting haven within the heart of Dubrovnik's Old Town, allowing families to fully embrace the city's rich history, cultural offerings, and seaside allure. With its convenient location and comfortable accommodations, Apartment Dejana offers a memorable stay for families looking to create cherished memories and explore all the wonders that Dubrovnik offers.
