

Apartment Coutelot

Region: 3 Valleys Sleeps: 12

Overview

Apartment Coutelot offers a well balanced blend of comfort, space and practical ski living in the heart of Courchevel Village. Set across two levels on the fourth floor of a modern residence, the apartment spans one hundred and seventy eight square metres, giving families and mixed groups plenty of room to settle in after long days on the slopes. The layout is straightforward and functional, with a bright open plan living space, a fully equipped kitchen and a dining area designed for relaxed evenings together. A south facing balcony opens out from the lounge, bringing in natural light and giving guests a clear view of the surrounding mountains.

The apartment sleeps up to twelve guests across six bedrooms. Four double rooms offer a calm and restful setting, while two children's bunk rooms provide useful sleeping flexibility for younger travellers. Several rooms have their own bathroom access, and there are four bathrooms in total, ensuring smooth mornings before heading out to the lifts. A dedicated laundry area, ski locker and boot dryer add to the convenience, allowing guests to stay organised throughout their stay.

Ski access is a strong point. The Grangettes lift and the nearest chairlift, roughly 100 metres from the residence, making it easy to get moving without relying on shuttle services. Courchevel Village continues to improve its offering, and guests staying at Apartment Coutelot are within easy reach of shops, ski schools, bakeries and relaxed local restaurants. Covered parking for two vehicles is included, and essential services such as linen, towels and end of stay cleaning are all provided. Apartment Coutelot is a straightforward and comfortable base in a well connected part of the Three Valleys, ideal for groups who want stress free access to the slopes.

Location & Local Information

Apartment Coutelot is set in Courchevel Village, offering a quieter atmosphere while keeping excellent access to the full Three Valleys network. The Grangettes chairlift is roughly one hundred metres from the residence, giving guests an easy and dependable route up the mountain each morning. From the top, the connections into the wider Courchevel area are smooth, making the apartment a practical base for groups who want quick movement without the crowds of the higher stations.

Courchevel Village has a strong mix of everyday conveniences, all within a short walk. You'll find bakeries, ski hire shops, cafés and relaxed restaurants dotted around the centre, along with a supermarket for simple self-catering. Ski schools sit close to the main lift area, and the surrounding pistes are well suited to families and learners easing into the week.

Après-ski here stays low key, leaning more towards friendly bars and local dining than late-night venues. Even so, reaching the other levels of Courchevel is straightforward thanks to the free resort shuttle that runs throughout the area. With its calm setting and efficient lift access, Apartment Coutelot works well for guests who want straightforward movement on and off the slopes and a comfortable base to return to each evening.

What we love

- The welcome bottle of champagne is a lovely touch from the hosts.
- The apartment is perfectly located with convenient access to Courchevel Village's bakeries, ski schools and local shops.
- The bright open-plan living area designed for relaxed evenings after skiing is the perfect place to unwind.

What you should know...

- Two of the double bedrooms share the main bathroom rather than having an en-suite.
- The walk to the Grangettes lift is short but slightly uphill. There is the option to take the Roys button lift over to Grangettes, but these lifts can be tricky for beginner skiers.
- Please note that the bunk rooms are only suitable for children due to the size and layout of the rooms.
