

Apartment Huet

Region: 3 Valleys    Sleeps: 4

---

Overview

Apartment Huet offers a warm and comfortable winter retreat in the heart of Courchevel Moriond. Set within easy reach of the slopes, this smart and modern chalet apartment is ideal for families or small groups eager to maximise their time on the mountain. The apartment has a welcoming alpine feel, with clean lines, natural materials and plenty of light pouring in through generous windows. After a day exploring Courchevel and the wider 3 Valleys ski area, the living area is the perfect place to settle in with soft seating, a TV and views across the snowy surroundings.

A fully equipped kitchen makes mealtimes simple to manage, whether you prefer relaxed breakfasts before heading out or cosy dinners after a long day on the pistes. The dining area offers an inviting space for sharing meals and planning the next day's adventures. The apartment's south facing balcony brings in natural light throughout the day and provides a lovely spot to enjoy fresh mountain air or watch the last skiers return home.

Two comfortable bedrooms make Apartment Huet well suited to families. The double bedroom offers a peaceful place to unwind, while the twin room is ideal for children or friends. A bright bathroom with a bathtub and towel warmer is complemented by a separate WC for added convenience.

Practical touches ensure an easy winter stay, including a private parking space, a ski locker for storing equipment and reliable Wi-Fi. With the Ariondaz lift and local ski school close by, getting onto the slopes is refreshingly straightforward. Shops, ski hire and restaurants are just a short walk away, allowing you to enjoy the best of Courchevel Moriond without the need for transport.

Apartment Huet delivers comfort, simplicity and excellent access to the mountains, making it a great choice for a relaxed alpine holiday.

Location & Local Information

Apartment Huet enjoys a fantastic position in Courchevel Moriond, placing guests within easy reach of the slopes, the ski school and the lively village atmosphere. This part of the 3 Valleys is known for its welcoming feel, reliable snow cover and access to a wide range of pistes that suit beginners through to confident skiers. The Ariondaz lift is only a short walk from the apartment, making it simple to reach the wider ski area each morning without the need for transport. Families will appreciate the close proximity of the children’s learning zones, where gentle pistes and friendly instructors help build confidence on the snow.

Courchevel Moriond offers a relaxed yet vibrant setting with plenty to explore off the slopes. Shops, ski hire outlets and warm cafés are close by, allowing you to pick up equipment, enjoy a quick coffee or browse local produce. The village also has a good selection of restaurants, from casual spots ideal for families to more refined dining for those looking to unwind after an active day. With everything within walking distance, Apartment Huet makes it easy to enjoy both the skiing and the charm of village life in one of Europe’s most celebrated alpine destinations.

What we love

- The excellent layout for families at Apartment Huet, with a double room and a bright twin room for children or friends
- The short walking distance to the ski lifts, restaurants, bars, shops and local ski school meeting point is the ideal spot for that ski holiday
- The convenience of a private ski locker for keeping equipment organised and ready for the next morning is a great added bonus

What you should know...

- Please note that the apartment is located near a main road, therefore some noise from the street level can occasionally be heard
- As the residence is in a popular winter area, some ambient village noise is possible during peak weeks.
- Snowfall can occasionally make village paths slippery, so good winter footwear is essential.
