Location & Local Information

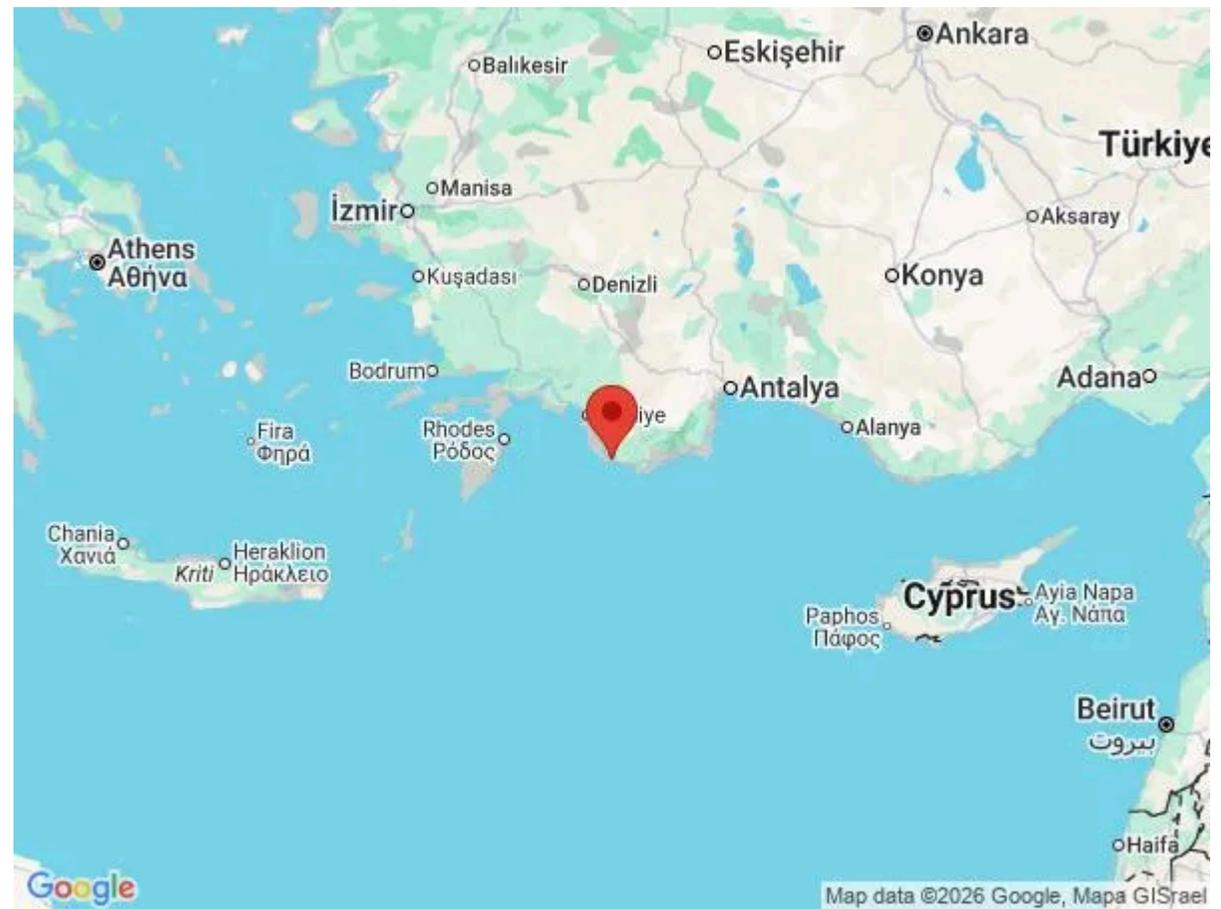

Villa Aro is located overlooking beautiful Kalamar Bay, west of the quaint harbour town of Kalkan, situated on Turkey's Turquoise Coast, the jewel of the Mediterranean Sea. The villa is one hundred and twenty-five kilometres from Dalaman Airport, a scenic one-and-a-half-hour journey through the Turkish countryside and Taurus mountains.

The old town of Kalkan is covered in cobbled streets, traditional white houses festooned in colourful bougainvillea, and home to a reputed one hundred and fifty restaurants, cafes, and bars, enticing souvenir shops, and designer brand stores stuffed with objects of desire. After dark, dine in one of the famous rooftop restaurants with stunning harbour and sea views, sampling traditional Turkish delights and international cuisine. From the villa, it is a short drive to the local shops and restaurants of Kalamar and a five-minute drive into Kalkan, where you can find supermarkets, banks, and a local Thursday market.

Within walking distance of the villa are three beach clubs, restaurants, and infinity swimming pools. Kalkan town has its pebble beach with organised sun loungers and brollies, easy access to the calm Mediterranean sea, and a cute cafe. Travel further afield to the stunning Kaputas Beach, set in a natural gorge, or take a trip to Patara, where you will find twenty kilometres of unspoilt golden sands and a protected area for the hatching Caretta Caretta turtles. Patara also boasts an archaeological site over two thousand years old, with not just one but two ancient amphitheatres, not to mention the most stunning sunsets, best seen from the ever-changing sand dunes.

All aboard a traditional gulet for a day of sunbathing, swimming, and snorkelling, enjoy a meal of homecooked meze, then sail back to the harbour, cocktail in hand, to watch the sunset.

The Lycian Way walking trail cuts through Kalkan. Follow in the footsteps of thousands of years of history as you trek the trail taking you through major archaeological sites, local villages, dramatic coastlines, and the areas' flora and fauna.

The harbour town of Fethiye is also full of ancient sites worth seeing, as well as a foodie-heaven fish market, and home to some seriously good designer labels and fabulous jewellery shopping. Whilst the nearer town of Kas is just twenty-five kilometres in the other direction and worth the journey alone along one of the world's most stunning and dramatic coastlines.

What we love

- There's so much to love about Villa Aro, but what we love most is the stunning sea views, across the islands, to the horizon and beyond.
- We love the sunken seating spot, especially at sunset, cocktail in hand, raising a toast to a fabulous holiday with family and friends.
- Villa Aro is brand new, and we love that everything about it is so contemporary chic and state-of-the-art fabulous, yet so comfortable and welcoming.
- Villa Aro enjoys a superb position, in close proximity to three fantastic beach clubs and within walking distance of the turquoise waters of the Mediterranean Sea.

What you should know...

- This villa is next door to Villa Rudie, the photos are the same for both, therefore views and furnishings may differ slightly.
- Villa Aro is a semi-detached property with a mirror-image sister villa next door, Villa Rudie, perfect if you want to rent the two together for a large family holiday or a big group of friends get-together.
- The villa is within walking distance of supermarkets and the centre of Kalkan, but the roads can be steep there and back. There are many inexpensive taxis to get you where you want to be.
- Similarly, the beach clubs and seashore are only down the road from Villa Aro, but they are very steep roads and may not be suitable for those with mobility issues.
