

Apartment Mac

Region: Edinburgh Sleeps: 4

Overview

A short walk from the leafy expanse of The Meadows, Apartment Mac captures the ease and energy of city living with just the right touch of character. Housed within a converted brick printworks, its heritage façade hints at the creative spirit within, where curated artwork, warm tones and open-plan design combine to create a stylish yet relaxed pied-à-terre in the heart of Edinburgh's vibrant Newington district.

Inside, light pours into the spacious living area, where a comfortable sitting room flows into a well-equipped kitchen and dining space for six. It is an inviting hub for slow breakfasts or evenings spent over wine and conversation. Two serene bedrooms await down the hall, including a versatile super king-size that can be arranged as twins, and a second with a king-size bed. A double sofa bed in the lounge offers extra flexibility for families or groups.

Step outside and you're immediately surrounded by Newington's independent cafés, lively pubs and tucked-away boutiques, with historic streets unfolding in every direction. The vast green lawns of The Meadows are just minutes away, offering a breath of fresh air and space for picnics, games or a moment of calm beneath the city's skyline.

Perfect for a cultural city break or a longer Edinburgh stay, Apartment Mac balances comfort, location and thoughtful design in equal measure. Whether exploring galleries, enjoying a festival or simply soaking up local life, this welcoming retreat is the perfect place to call home.
