Location & Local Information

Quillside Cottage is located on the small Caribbean island of St. Eustatius, which is dominated by the Quill, a dormant volcano that is considered by volcanologists as one of the most perfectly formed specimens in the world. The island is popular with those who love to hike, with the Quill National Park featuring hiking trails suitable for all abilities, which lead along the ocean and around the volcano, where you'll find lush rainforests teeming with exotic species of orchid. Beach lovers will be pleased to know that narrow stretches of volcanic sand can be found along the Leeward side of the island, and adventure-seekers will be interested to know that there are dive sites offshore that range from coral reefs to shipwrecks.

Guests staying at Quillside Cottage can take full advantage of all the amenities that the Golden Rock Resort has to offer, including an extensive range of fitness and leisure activities such as a swimming pool, ocean-front gym, yoga facilities, and a tennis/basketball court. If you prefer to take life at a slower pace, the resort features 40 acres of exotic gardens with over 130,000 species of flowers, plants and trees that attract hummingbirds and butterflies. The marble paths lead you through this tropical paradise as you take in the glittering ocean views - pure bliss!

The resort features its own saltwater lagoon - fantastic for learning how to scuba dive or free dive. Here you'll find a 30ft sunken school bus reef to explore - a unique experience that Oliver highly recommends you try! If you happen to be visiting the resort from the 2nd - the 26th September, 2023, you might like to consider the Mermaid Retreat being held here, where wannabe mermaids can learn or polish their fin-swimming skills in a supportive, friendly environment. The retreat is suitable for ages 10 and up, with a second retreat available from the 12th - 16th January.

Fine dining is a huge part of any holiday, and the resort features two exciting options. Bobbie's Beach Club serves up delicious fusion cuisine, with everything from sushi and Caribbean BBQ to traditional Italian pizza available. The club offers guests panoramic ocean views and features hammocks and swings in the lagoon area for the ultimate luxury holiday experience. The Breeze restaurant is a must for cocktail fans, with a vast and delicious selection available, along with exquisite dishes that serve up local ingredients and a global flavour - all of which can be enjoyed while enjoying unparalleled ocean views.
