

Villa Koraki

Region: Heraklion Sleeps: 4

Overview

Positioned just six hundred metres from the sun-drenched beaches of the charming holiday resort of Malia, on the enchanting north coast of the Greek island of Crete, stands the captivating Villa Koraki. This architect-designed, one-bedroom modern villa embodies the essence of contemporary sophistication and is ideal for a romantic honeymoon, or an escape from it all couples' retreat. Villa Koraki is a detached, two-storey, cube-style gem, spanning an impressive forty-five square metres, and inviting you into a world brimming with elegance and comfort.

Upon entering the villa, you're welcomed by an inviting light and airy, open-plan living space. This space seamlessly connects to the private walled garden and the alluring pool terrace. Furnished with a comfortable sofa bed for one guest, a convenient coffee table, and a flat-screen TV, it's a perfect spot for relaxation and entertainment. The fully equipped kitchen, featuring modern appliances, hosts a tasteful four-seater dining set, setting the scene for fabulous indoor gatherings. Completing the ground floor is a state-of-the-art shower room, with a hand basin and WC.

Take the stairs to the mezzanine floor reveals the bedroom, furnished with a cosy double bed. An ingeniously integrated open-plan marble bathroom showcases the villa's thoughtfully designed layout, enhancing the sense of space and functionality. As you step outside, the villa's exterior unfolds into a serene haven. Enclosed by a graceful walled garden and enhanced with meticulously manicured lawns, a tiled terrace surrounds the inviting swimming pool. Luxurious deep-cushioned sun loungers beckon you to indulge in leisurely repose, while a low dining soft seating set offers an inviting space for intimate gatherings, especially around cocktail hour.

The charm of Villa Koto seamlessly incorporates modern comforts. Air conditioning ensures your comfort, regardless of the weather, while Wi-Fi keeps you seamlessly connected. Private parking facilities add to the convenience, particularly for those keen on exploring the island's numerous attractions by car. The well-appointed kitchen, equipped with a fridge freezer, oven, hob, filter coffee machine, and espresso coffee machine, anticipates and meets your culinary needs. Snuggled within the embrace of Villa Koraki, you'll discover a sanctuary where contemporary design harmonises with the unspoilt allure of Crete's north coast. This promises an unforgettable getaway, a perfect marriage of opulence and authenticity, offering a retreat that captures the heart and mind alike.
