

Chalet Caroline

Region: Alpe d'Huez Sleeps: 12

Overview

Introducing Chalet Caroline: Perfectly located in Alpe D'Huez's exclusive Heights Development, Chalet Caroline offers a luxurious and spacious retreat, delivering an extraordinary ski-in/ski-out holiday experience. Blending traditional alpine design and modern comforts, it's an inviting space for relaxation.

Chalet Caroline sleeps up to 12 guests across six en-suite bedrooms, each furnished to a high standard. Beds can be configured as twins or doubles, providing flexibility for families or friends. All rooms include private bathrooms, quality linens, and thoughtful details that promote restful nights.

The chalet's open-plan living and dining space is designed for relaxed socialising. In the lounge, plush sofas and armchairs gather around a wide-screen TV and a wood-burning fireplace, offering the perfect setting for post-ski downtime. The adjoining dining area seats the full party comfortably, making it ideal for celebratory meals or laid-back evenings in.

A modern, fully equipped kitchen gives guests the freedom to cook at their leisure, while an optional private chef service is available for those seeking a more indulgent experience. From hearty breakfasts to gourmet dinners, the service adds convenience and luxury—perfect for effortless entertaining.

Outdoors, a large terrace overlooks the mountains, with views across the piste Le Rifnel. Furnished for comfort, it's a great spot to relax in the sun or enjoy a hot drink after a day on the slopes, watching skiers pass below.

The ground floor wellness suite is a standout feature, with a state-of-the-art sauna and a generous hot tub—ideal for soothing tired muscles after a long day in the snow. A children's playroom offers a separate space for younger guests, complete with toys, a TV, and cosy seating, allowing them to unwind in their own way.

Chalet Caroline blends the best of alpine tradition with modern luxury, offering a polished, welcoming environment for groups looking to enjoy all that Alpe d'Huez has to offer in comfort and style.

Location & Local Information

Chalet Caroline sits on the slopes of the renowned Alpe D'Huez ski resort. Being just over an hour's drive from Grenoble airport and two hours from Lyon, Alpe d'Huez is a great location for those looking for a short transfer.

Known for its stunning views and excellent skiing opportunities, Chalet Caroline allows ski-in/ski out access meaning you can get out on the slopes straight away.

With being one of the largest ski areas in Europe, Alpe D'Huez benefits from a wide range of pistes and activities, making it a popular choice for skiers of all abilities. From gentle greens for beginners to challenging blacks for experienced skiers, the resort also offers excellent off-piste skiing and a snow park for freestyle enthusiasts. In addition to skiing, there are plenty of other winter activities to try your hand at while in the area, including snowshoeing and sledging.

The resort's village centre is a charming mix of traditional alpine architecture and modern facilities, with a variety of shops, restaurants, and bars to explore. For entertainment, the resort also hosts regular events throughout the year and is home to a large sports centre with a swimming pool, sauna, and fitness facilities.

What we love

- From the moment we stepped into Chalet Caroline, its spaciousness and inviting decor made us feel instantly at home, plus it's ski-in ski-out!
- Watching the sun set and rise over the mountains from Chalet Caroline's balcony was a breathtaking experience we'll always treasure.
- Being a mixed group, the proximity of Chalet Caroline to both the slopes and non-skiing activities was a perfect fit for our diverse interests.
