

Chalet Delphine

Region: Megeve Sleeps: 14

Overview

Chalet Delphine is an exceptional winter retreat in Megève, offering expansive and luxurious alpine living. Designed for guests seeking comfort and sophistication after days on the snow, the chalet combines elegant contemporary finishes with inviting mountain warmth. Its generous living spaces are arranged to maximise relaxation in winter, with a grand lounge centred around a working fireplace and full-height windows that frame the snowy landscapes of Mont d'Arbois.

The chalet's wellness floor provides an impressive sanctuary for winter recovery, featuring a large indoor swimming pool, hammam, indoor Jacuzzi and massage room. A dedicated fitness area allows guests to maintain their routines, while the cinema room and games room create a perfect setting for cosy evenings indoors. The wine cellar and bar add an atmospheric touch for après-ski gatherings.

Six beautifully appointed en-suite bedrooms offer privacy and comfort for families and groups, including a charming children's room with bunk beds. Practical ski conveniences are in place for winter stays, such as a spacious ski room with boot warmers. The chalet sits within easy reach of the Mont d'Arbois télécabine, approximately 850m away, giving access to Megève's extensive ski terrain and its renowned variety of pistes.

Complimentary services elevate the winter experience even further. Guests can enjoy the attention of a private chef, butler and daily housekeeping, ensuring every detail is taken care of throughout their stay. Chalet Delphine brings together refined design, thoughtful amenities and an excellent location to create a superb setting for an indulgent winter holiday in the French Alps

Location & Local Information

Chalet Delphine enjoys a privileged position in the prestigious Mont d'Arbois area of Megève, placing guests within easy reach of one of the resort's most desirable ski areas. The Mont d'Arbois télécabine is around 850m from the chalet, giving swift access to a wide range of pistes that cater to all levels, from gentle tree runs to more advanced terrain. The setting balances tranquillity with convenience, offering a peaceful base while remaining close to the vibrant atmosphere of Megève.

During the winter season, the area becomes a picturesque snowy landscape, ideal for skiing, snowboarding and scenic winter walks. Guests can also make use of nearby ski schools and equipment hire, which help create a seamless and enjoyable start to each day on the mountain. After time on the slopes, Megève's renowned dining scene is within easy reach, including restaurants and relaxed cafés where guests can enjoy classic Savoyard dishes.

With mountain views, quiet surroundings and straightforward access to the region's best winter experiences, Chalet Delphine offers an excellent location for a memorable ski holiday in the French Alps.

What we love

- The spacious interior of Chalet Delphine is perfect for families or large groups looking to enjoy the wonders of Megève.
- The superb wellness area with an indoor pool, hammam, Jacuzzi and massage room are all ideal after long days on the slopes
- Chalet Delphine's luxury services including chef, butler and daily housekeeping, creating a seamless and elevated winter stay
- Lift access between floors makes it a breeze to get around the chalet with tired legs after a long day of skiing

What you should know...

- All bedrooms except the children's room feature double beds, which may influence room allocation for mixed groups
- A ski room ensures that your living spaces are kept dry and clutter-free.
- The chalet's quiet setting enhances tranquility, but it places restaurants and village life at a short distance rather than immediate proximity, making the chauffeur service a necessary added luxury
