Location & Local Information

Cortijo Maria Camila is set in a hilltop location looking down into a valley - it's like being on top of the world! The surrounding landscapes are perfect for hiking and rambling, with incredible views that really need to be seen to be believed - for anyone who truly wants to get away from it all, this property really is perfectly located! The nearest city is Malaga, an area known for its stunning beaches, incredible food and interesting culture. This budget-friendly city is bursting with natural attractions such as parks and beautiful lookout points, as well as lots of museums and landmarks that are often free to enter on specific days. Some popular tourist attractions, such as Gibralfaro Castle, are free on Sundays, a couple of hours before closing time, and Malaga's Centre of Contemporary Art offers free entry throughout the week. If you're an art-lover, you can't come to Malaga and not visit the Picasso Museum, which is situated right in the historic centre of the city. The people of Malaga are incredibly proud that the artist was born here, and his museum is the most visited in Andalucía. Here you'll discover a vast collection of the master's works, including paintings, drawings, graphic works and sculptures.

Enjoying over 300 days of sunshine a year, it's no wonder that Malaga is a popular holiday destination, and its clean, bright atmosphere, pedestrian-only city centre and revamped harbour area only add to the appeal. You'll find plenty of shops and restaurants to enjoy, as well as pavement-side cafes and wine bars, with tables shaded by large umbrellas - perfect spots for sitting and watching the world go by.

Malaga is home to plenty of beaches, with Playa Malagueta being situated right in the city itself, just east of the port. Featuring dark sands and a palm tree-lined seafront promenade, this urban beach offers plenty of great amenities, including sunbed and umbrella rental, toilets and showers, lifeguards, wheelchair access, and sailing equipment for hire. This Blue Flag Award-winning beach also features a children's play area, making it a great choice for families who want to spend the day here.

Food plays a huge part in Malagan culture, and the Old Town features some of the very best tapas bars in Spain, as well as authentic Bodega bars and traditional ice-cream parlours.
