

Cortijo Maria Camila

Region: Andalucia Sleeps: 8

Overview

If it's luxury and privacy you seek for your family holiday in the sun, you'll need to look no further than Cortijo Maria Camila, an authentic and rustic farmhouse-style property set in stunning rural surroundings close to the city of Malaga. Featuring four double bedrooms, stylish living spaces and beautiful poolside gardens, the Cortijo is a haven of peace and tranquillity, offering guests a stay they'll never forget in one of Spain's most glorious regions.

The villa is decorated throughout with its Andalusian heritage in mind, with whitewashed walls, antique furnishings, hand-stitched tapestries and gorgeous oversized fireplaces. The lounge area is the perfect space for cosying up with loved ones, featuring plush cream sofas and beautifully crafted wooden furnishings for a classy, farmhouse feel. There's ample dining space at the rustic family dining table and a well-equipped kitchen that provides guests with all of the amenities they'll need to cater to the whole party during their stay, along with an array of cookware, crockery and utensils. This charming holiday hideaway features four spacious and beautifully designed bedrooms, all with sumptuous and comfortable beds, colourful linens and bespoke furniture. Two of the bedrooms benefit from modern ensuite facilities, with the main bedroom's bathroom accessible via an arched corridor and complete with a hammam-style bath and a private terrace with an invigorating outdoor shower. Two more equally ornate and luxurious bedrooms share a separate family bathroom with modern facilities for extra convenience.

The outdoor spaces here at Cortijo Maria Camila are simply out of this world, featuring a summer kitchen and covered dining area for alfresco meals and a water garden with a covered spa cabana. Guests can spend their time here cooling off in the private pool, or lounging in the shade of ancient eucalyptus and palm trees, all while taking in the stunning views of the valley and the Mediterranean sea beyond - pure bliss!

Not only is Cortijo Maria Camila a perfect choice for a family holiday, but it's even better with a larger group due to its sister villa, Blanco de Caza (<https://www.oliverstravels.com/spain/andalucia/malaga/blanco-de-caza/>), being located on the same estate! Although close, both villas are surrounded by walls and separated by mature gardens, meaning guests can still enjoy a sense of privacy from one another. Even better, guests will gain exclusive occupancy of the entire hilltop estate! Together, these gorgeous properties can accommodate up to 14 guests, which is perfect for reunions or special events, and the friendly owners are more than happy to organise any extra services, catering, or entertainment for your stay on the estate. Get in touch with us today to secure your stay at these villas and start planning that perfect holiday away!

Location & Local Information

Cortijo Maria is set in a hilltop location looking down into a valley - it's like being on top of the world! The surrounding landscapes are perfect for hiking and rambling, with incredible views that really need to be seen to be believed - for anyone who truly wants to get away from it all, Cortijo Maria really is perfectly located! The nearest city is Malaga, an area known for its stunning beaches, incredible food and interesting culture. This budget-friendly city is bursting with natural attractions such as parks and beautiful lookout points, as well as lots of museums and landmarks that are often free to enter on specific days. Some popular tourist attractions, such as Gibralfaro Castle, are free on Sundays, a couple of hours before closing time, and Malaga's Centre of Contemporary Art offers free entry throughout the week. If you're an art-lover, you can't come to Malaga and not visit the Picasso Museum, which is situated right in the historic centre of the city. The people of Malaga are incredibly proud that the artist was born here, and his museum is the most visited in Andalucia. Here you'll discover a vast collection of the master's works, including paintings, drawings, graphic works and sculptures.

Enjoying over 300 days of sunshine a year, it's no wonder that Malaga is a popular holiday destination, and its clean, bright atmosphere, pedestrian-only city centre and revamped harbour area only add to the appeal. You'll find plenty of shops and restaurants to enjoy, as well as pavement-side cafes and wine bars, with tables shaded by large umbrellas - perfect spots for sitting and watching the world go by.

Malaga is home to plenty of beaches, with Playa Malagueta being situated right in the city itself, just east of the port. Featuring dark sands and a palm tree-lined seafront promenade, this urban beach offers plenty of great amenities, including sunbed and umbrella rental, toilets and showers, lifeguards, wheelchair access, and sailing equipment for hire. This Blue Flag Award-winning beach also features a children's play area, making it a great choice for families who want to spend the day here.

Food plays a huge part in Malagan culture, and the Old Town features some of the very best tapas bars in Spain, as well as authentic Bodega bars and traditional ice-cream parlours.
