Villa Feray

Region: Turkey Sleeps: 8

Overview

Villa Feray is perfectly positioned equidistantly between the cosmopolitan town of Fethiye and the hot spot coastal haven of Oludeniz. This newly constructed three-storey, detached villa can comfortably accommodate up to eight guests in its four spacious double bedrooms, making it an excellent choice for family gatherings and memorable get-togethers with friends. Complimentary air conditioning and Wi-Fi is included throughout, along with secure, on-site parking for your peace of mind, and traditional mosquito nets ensure your comfort during your stay.

At the heart of Villa Feray lies its inviting open-plan living space, stylishly furnished with contemporary pieces and seamlessly connected to the pool terrace and gardens. The inviting seating area has two comfortable sofas, armchairs, a coffee table, side tables, a sideboard, and a large flat-screen television for your entertainment. A swish dining table for six is perfect for indoor entertaining. The fully equipped all-white kitchen caters to your culinary needs, featuring modern built-in appliances, including a dishwasher, washing machine, fridge/freezer, microwave, oven, hob, and dinnerware for twelve guests. A convenient guest cloakroom completes the ground floor.

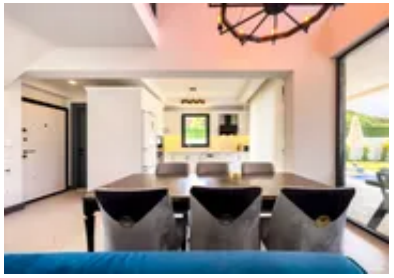

Take the staircase to the upper floors, where a central atrium with a stunning chandelier floods the villa with lots of natural light. Villa Feray has four well-appointed bedrooms, each furnished with a double bed, bedside cabinets, fitted wardrobes, a vanity table, and an en-suite bathroom with walk-in showers, hand basins, and WCs. All the bedrooms have a private balcony with views of the villa's pool and well-kept garden, offering a peaceful spot to unwind.

Step outside onto the tiled terrace, edged by well-manicured lush green lawns. The private step-entry swimming pool is surrounded by comfortable sun loungers and shady parasols, perfect for relaxing in the summer sun. Stop for coffee at the soft seating set and catch up with this season's best seller. Meet under the veranda for cocktails at sunset before feasting alfresco at the outdoor dining set for six, best served with dishes freshly grilled on the barbecue.

Whether you're in search of a peaceful retreat, an adventurous exploration of Fethiye and Oludeniz, or a cultural Odyssey, Villa Feray offers an ideal base for creating enduring memories against the backdrop of Turkey's stunning coastline. It's a comfortable haven that strikes a perfect balance between modern convenience and understated charm.

Location & Local Information

Villa Feray is one of four fabulous new build properties in the residential area of the lively resort of Hisaronu. Just under a sixty-kilometre drive from Dalaman International Airport through the Turkish countryside will take you to your holiday home. The villa is perfectly situated betwixt and between the bustling town of Fethiye and the desirable resort destination of Oludeniz, both only fifteen minutes away. For holiday provisions, local shops and restaurants are a short walk away. Hisaronu is home to a host of supermarkets, cafes, bars, and restaurants, a busy nightlife, and some super souvenir shops too.

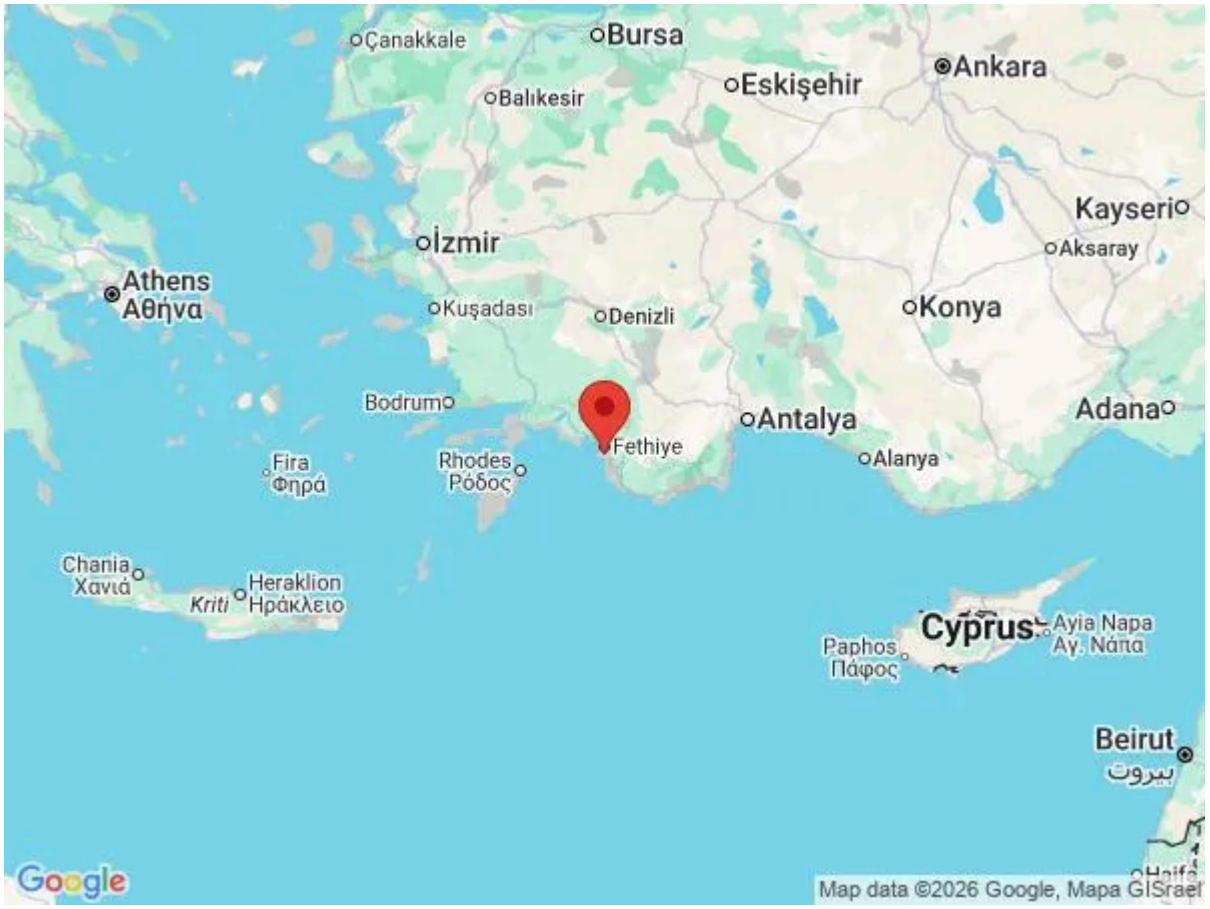

Take a short drive down to Oludeniz, where you will find one of the world's best blue flag, golden sandy beaches, the iconic and much-photographed blue lagoon and spit, offering a selection of adrenalin-inducing water sports. In the evening, the town comes alive with buzzing seashore restaurants and bars and a chance to indulge in some exclusive shopping. From Oludeniz, you can hop aboard a water taxi to Butterfly Valley or cross the sea to Gemile Island. For the thrill seekers, head up the hill and take the cable car to the top of Mount Babadag, and paraglide back down to Oludeniz beach.

For shopping and the city, Fethiye is your go-to destination, a harbour town with yachts moored the length of the coastline, home to an ancient amphitheatre, a historical museum and rock tombs, and an embarkation point for the obligatory Twelve Island boat trip. There is a foodie-heaven fish market, souvenir shops selling your favourite designer brands, and a local Tuesday market.

Culture can be found in ancient ruins and historic sites along the Lycian Way, take a walk in nature and discover the area's local flora and fauna.

What we love

- We love the magnificent Taurus Mountain backdrop of Villa Feray and the sight of the Turkish countryside that surrounds the villa.
- The bedrooms in the eaves of Villa Feray have simply stunning sweeping views, best admired at sunrise and sunset.
- The lighting at Villa Feray is super swish and stylish, contemporary ceiling fixtures and sparkling chandeliers add interest and adornment.
- All the ensuite bathrooms at Villa Feray are beautifully appointed, with large walk-in showers to cool off on hot days.

What you should know...

- The nearest beaches of Oludeniz are a long walk down a very steep hill, there is lots of public transport to take you there and back, and taxis are relatively inexpensive.
- Villa Feray is one of four identical villas, great if there's a large group or family celebration travelling together, however please note that as the pictures are the same views and furnishings may differ slightly.
- The other three villas are Villa Esin (https://www.oliverstravels.com/turkey/fethiye/villa-esin/), Villa Dalaria (https://www.oliverstravels.com/turkey/fethiye/villa-dalaria/)and Villa Adil (https://www.oliverstravels.com/turkey/fethiye/villa-adil/).

Travelling to Turkey
All British (and most other nationalities) citizens require a full 10-year passport with at least 6 months validity to enter Turkey. UK passport holders are exempt from visa for tourist visits of up to 90 days within 180 days starting from the first entry date. For all other passports please visit the Turkish Government Website (https://www.evisa.gov.tr/en/) or the Turkish Consulate for details of whether you require a visa or not.

Whilst in Turkey local regulations require you keep your passport and a printed copy of your e-visa with you at all times.
