Villa Karra can be found in the tiny village of Agii Apostoli, near the north coast of Attica, on the Greek mainland, overlooking the azure waters of the Aegean Sea. The villa is a scenic hour's drive from Athen's international airport, and a forty minute journey to the city centre if you fancy a cultural odyssey.

In the village, you will find stores to cater for your holiday, a handful of bars and family run tavernas, and a beach with golden sands and crystal clear waters. Have some fun in the sun windsurfing, stand up paddleboarding, and jet skiing. The nearby beaches of Schinias, Nea Makri, and Rafina are also well worth a visit.

Get active with some hiking or biking along the beautiful trails of the local hills. Take a run to the nearby town of Marathon, and explore the tomb and Archeological Museum. See Sounio and the Temple of Poseidon overlooking the sea. Go to the Technological and Cultural Park at Lavrio. Visit Vravra with the sanctuary and temple dedicated to Artemis. Make a day of it in Athens and see the Acropolis.
