Location & Local Information

The home is set in an undulating rural landscape which is typical of the slow-paced, Dordogne region. Surrounding the house there are dense woodlands and open pastures, offering a peaceful setting for a family break.

This area is filled with little villages and hamlets which are dotted around the farmland. The closest village is Le Lardin-Saint-Lazare which is just 2.5km away. Though small, the village is handy to have nearby as there are two bakeries, a pharmacy, a shop, bar and restaurant here. When you wish to pick up some fresh bread in the mornings, you can visit the village rather than driving in to one of the larger towns.

One lovely town you could visit is Terrasson which is 10km away and is an absolutely stunning place to pass a morning. The town is one of two halves divided by the vast river. On one side, you have the more modern shops and restaurants, while the other side is home to the atmospheric old town and the famous gardens, known as the Jardins de l'Imaginaire. The old town is filled with cobbled streets and half-timber homes which are lovely to see as you wander round the shops and enjoy lunch at a local café. If you are here on a Thursday, the town has a brilliant market.

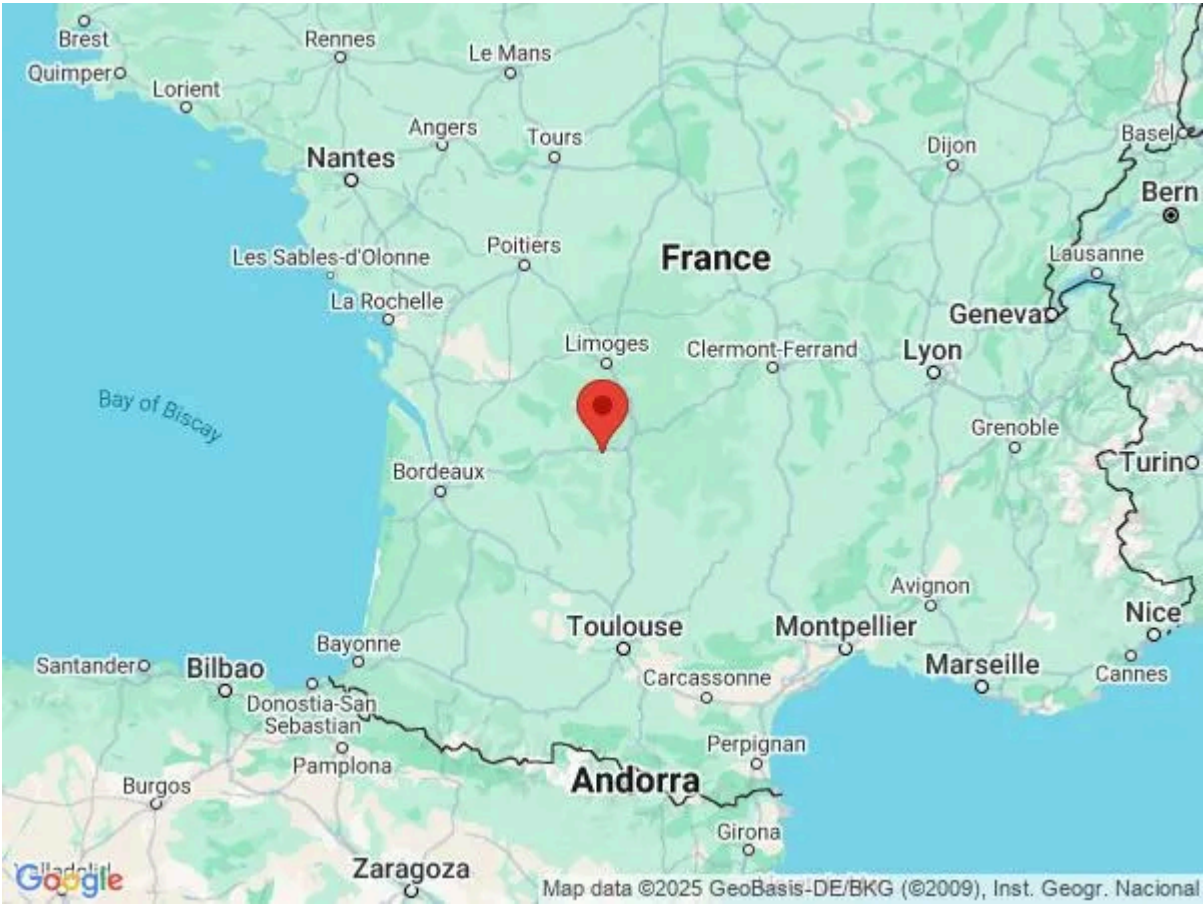

Also, only 10km away is a village called Montignac, a charming village overlooking the pretty Vézère River. The village centre hails mainly from the 14th century and is packed with historic buildings, restaurants and shops. This area has been settled for much longer than this however, as you can see on a visit to the pre-historic Lascaux Caves, here you can also view exhibitions and reproductions of the cave drawings found deep in the cave.

The Dordogne is a wonderful place to visit if you are a foodie or a wine-lover. The area is littered with family-run vineyards, farms growing organic produce and incredible restaurants. One great town you could visit to sample some of the local produce such as goat's cheese, truffles, duck and walnuts is the town of Sarlat-la-Canéda which is known as Sarlat. The town is 35km away from the house and is a picture-postcard town which is typically French. Sarlat offers tiny cafes, country-style pubs and Michelin starred restaurants, meaning there is something to suit everyone's tastes. As well as the gastronomic attractions, the town is packed with art and history; here you can visit the Manoir de Gisson which is home in the style of a castle, the imposing town hall and lots of quaint churches.

In addition to this fantastic range of villages and towns, Villa Des Fleurs is set near to forests, walking routes and the River Vézère where you can enjoy scenic picnics, walks and go kayaking along the river.
