Location & Local Information

Located in the middle of Begur, this charming villa is perfectly placed to unwind in the sun and explore the beautiful surroundings. The charming town, nestled in the heart of Costa Brava, offers a captivating blend of history, stunning landscapes, and a vibrant culture, whilst its elevated position rewards visitors with breathtaking views of the Mediterranean Sea and the surrounding picturesque countryside.

The town itself is a tapestry of narrow cobblestone streets lined with quaint whitewashed houses adorned with colourful bougainvillea, creating a postcard-perfect setting. The historic centre, crowned by the 11th-century hilltop castle, exudes an old-world charm, inviting visitors to explore its medieval roots and learn about its rich heritage. The gastronomic scene is a delightful fusion of Catalan flavours and Mediterranean influences, with seafood taking centre stage in many local dishes. Many restaurants offer traditional recipes featuring the fresh catch of the day, and you can enjoy a dish of succulent grilled fish, a classic paella or savour regional specialities like fideuà (similar to paella but made with noodles), accompanied by a glass of crisp local wine.

For beach enthusiasts, Begur boasts some of the most exquisite beaches along the Costa Brava coastline. Sa Riera, with its golden sands and crystal-clear waters, is a popular choice for sunbathing and swimming whilst the small fishing villa of Sa Tuna, offers a more secluded and intimate beach experience, perfect for a relaxing day by the sea. Adventurous souls can explore the rugged beauty of Aiguablava, which is known for its azure waters and stunning cliffs and is ideal for snorkelling and diving.

Outdoor enthusiasts will find themselves spoiled for choice with an array of activities in Begur and its surroundings. Hiking enthusiasts can embark on scenic trails along the coastal paths, such as the Camí de Ronda, offering breathtaking vistas of the coastline and hidden coves. For a dose of history, a visit to the nearby medieval town of Pals, with its well-preserved ancient streets and Romanesque architecture, is a must.

Exploring nearby towns like Palafrugell and its famous Sunday market, where local artisans showcase their crafts and fresh produce. Also, a short drive away is the enchanting village of Peratallada, characterised by its medieval architecture and stone-laid streets that transport visitors back in time.

What we love

- Casa Begur blends historical essence with contemporary design, showcasing vaulted ceilings and terracotta accents for a warm Catalan vibe
- The open-plan living and dining area features a modern kitchen, whilst a cozy fireplace is perfect for spending snug afternoons during the cooler months
- Outside, an expansive space includes a private pool, children's play area, barbecue spot, and a terrace with sun loungers—a perfect setting for relaxation and alfresco dining in front of picturesque views

What you should know...

- In light of the limited rainfall experienced on the Costa Brava in recent months, water usage restrictions have been implemented across the region. As a result, you may notice some differences in the garden compared to the photos, and the pool may not be filled to its maximum capacity due to evaporation
- The entrance is only accessible via a lengthy set of stairs making it more challenging for elderly people
- A car is recommended to explore the surrounding area and there is parking for two cars on site
- All the bedrooms feature air conditioning so guests can enjoy a comfortable temperature during the hot summer nights
- Due to the proximity of neighbouring properties, loud music and excessive noise should be avoided
