Villa Campestre

Region: Portugal Sleeps: 14

Overview

Villa Campestre sits in the southern Douro region, where rolling vineyards and olive groves stretch across land once cultivated by the Cistercian monks. Designed for guests who value comfort, privacy, and a deep connection to nature, the villa offers a restful base surrounded by the region's prized produce -fresh fruit, olive oil, and sparkling spumante wines.

Inside, light-filled social spaces blend contemporary design with thoughtful touches. The lounge and kitchen are open and welcoming, while bedrooms provide calm retreats with far-reaching vineyard views. The mezzanine suite offers added independence with a king-size bed, private bathroom, and a kitchenette - ideal for couples or guests needing their own space. Upstairs, a generous master suite and two junior suites each come with private bathrooms and views over the landscape.

For even more privacy, a separate pool house includes its own kitchen, living space, and a king-size bedroom - perfect for multigenerational families or friends travelling together. The infinity pool, sun terrace, and shaded dining areas invite relaxed outdoor living.

Villa Campestre also connects guests to the rhythms of the Douro. Enjoy curated walking routes, seasonal harvests, and local wine tastings - all part of an experience rooted in the land.

Location & Local Information

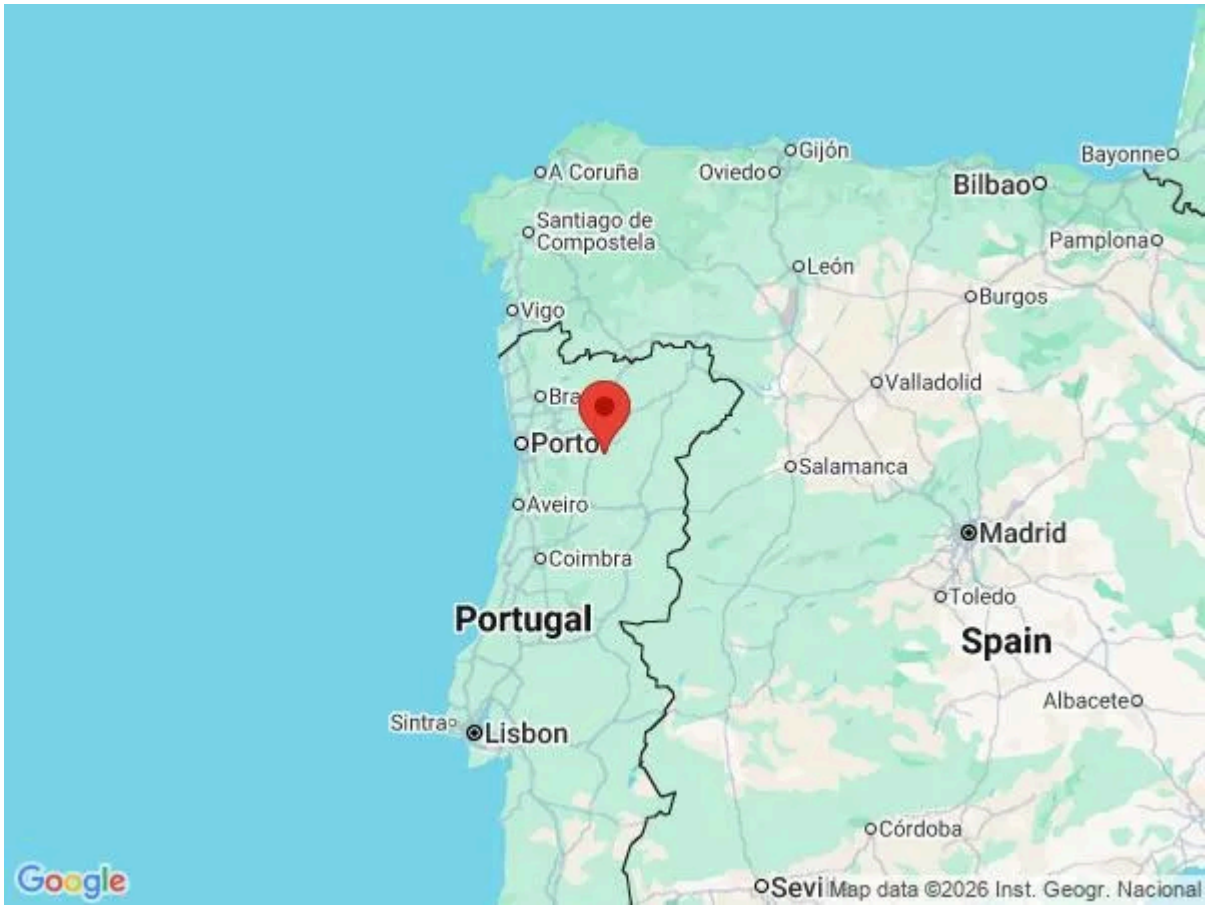

Villa Campestre is set in the southern Douro, a region known for its terraced vineyards, olive groves, and rich cultural heritage. The villa's peaceful surroundings make it a perfect base for slow exploration - whether that's walking through the countryside, tasting locally produced wine and olive oil, or visiting nearby villages that still hold traces of monastic history.

The Douro Valley is a UNESCO World Heritage site, celebrated for its winemaking traditions and striking natural beauty. Guests can enjoy scenic drives, river cruises, or hikes through forested trails, all within easy reach. History lovers will appreciate the region's old chapels and castles, while food enthusiasts can sample local dishes at family-run restaurants.

At the end of each day, Villa Campestre offers a return to comfort - its hillside position and open views making it an ideal place to unwind with a glass of spumante and watch the sun dip below the vines.
