

Chalet Douceur

Region: Alpe d'Huez Sleeps: 12

Overview

The newly renovated Chalet Douceur is a stunning five-bedroom accommodation where luxury meets convenience at the foot of the Bergers slope in Alpe d'Huez.

This ski-in/ski-out haven boasts a bright and spacious interior, adorned with light, neutral decor, white walls, and beamed ceilings, creating an ambience of alpine serenity. The well-crafted furnishings and natural shaded fabrics enhance the chalet's allure, inviting you into a world of comfort and style.

Upon entering, the open-plan lounge, dining, and kitchen spaces unfold before you, seamlessly integrating modern design and mountain charm. The living room, flooded with natural light and complete with sumptuous seating and a flatscreen TV, opens onto a south-facing terrace that offers breathtaking views of the Oisans Mountains. Here, you can bask in the warmth of the wood-burning fireplace, providing the perfect refuge after an exhilarating day on the slopes. Adjacent to the lounge space is a well-appointed dining area, with ample room for intimate indoor meals, while additional seating is available at the stylish breakfast bar - a great spot for enjoying a morning cuppa, or for keeping the cook company.

Chalet Douceur's fully-equipped kitchen with contemporary appliances and sleek finishes, invites culinary adventures and social gatherings, featuring everything you'll need to cater to the whole family during your stay, including an oven and hob, kettle, electric coffee maker and a dishwasher. There's also a washing machine - a convenient addition for those enjoying an extended stay at the chalet.

This stylish chalet features five elegantly decorated bedrooms; two double rooms, two twin rooms and a children's room with bunk beds, all complete with ensuite bathrooms and balconies showcasing incredible mountain views. These cosy havens are just as beautifully furnished as the rest of the apartment, with sumptuous beds and high-end furnishings to ensure a luxurious stay.

For relaxation and rejuvenation, guests of Chalet Douceur can indulge in the spa area featuring a sauna and jacuzzi—a sanctuary for unwinding amidst the mountain backdrop. In addition, a ski room, equipped with boot dryers, and three indoor parking spaces add practicality to the luxurious experience.

Alpe d'Huez, known as "The Island in the sun," offers a family-friendly and sporty atmosphere. Beyond the chalet's walls, the resort beckons with its exceptional ski area, diverse activities, and vibrant après-ski scene. Whether you're a skiing enthusiast or a non-skier, the splendid landscapes and famous nightlife make Alpe d'Huez a year-round destination.

Location & Local Information

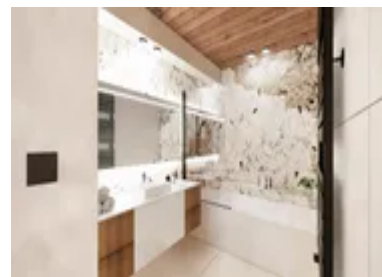

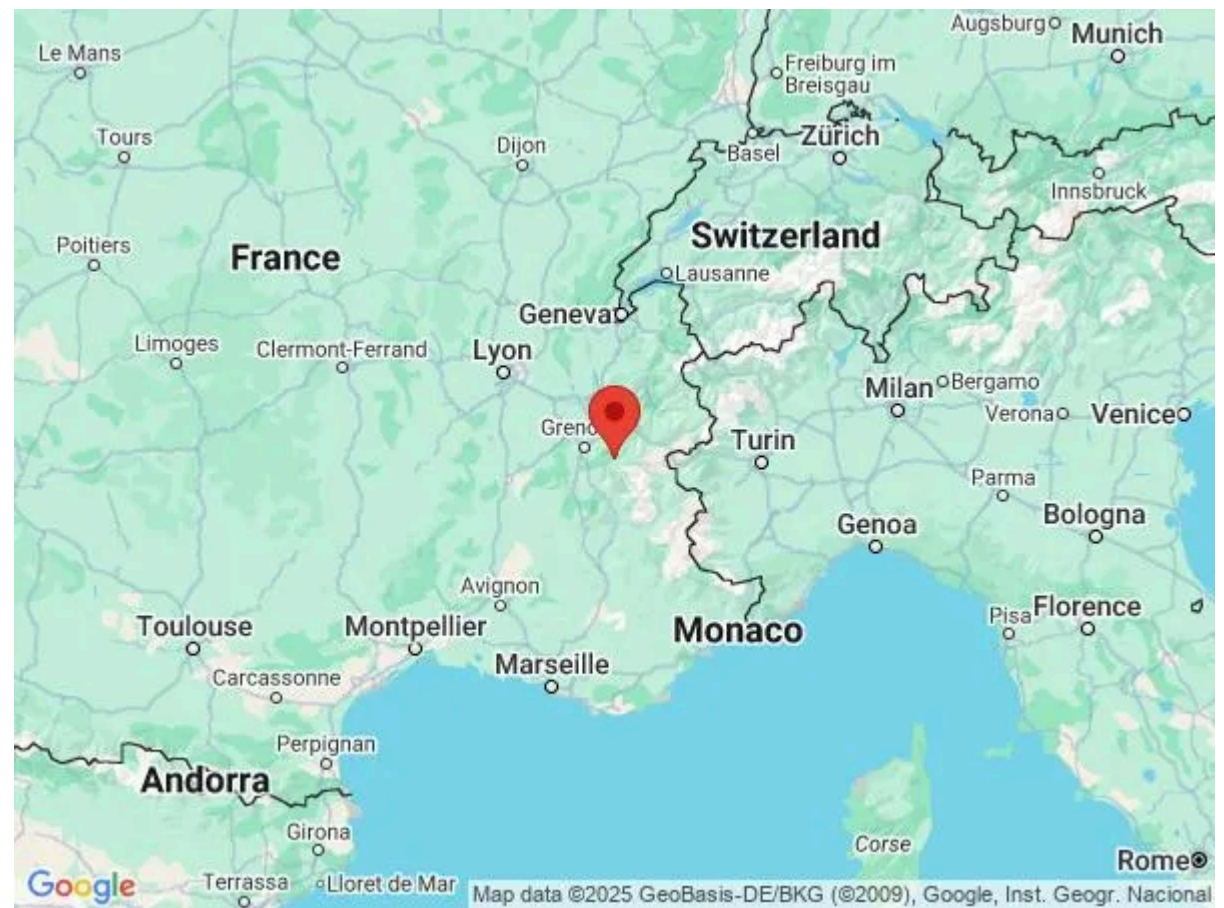

Nestled amidst the majestic peaks of the French Alps, Alpe d'Huez stands as a testament to the perfect blend of family-friendly charm and thrilling sportsmanship. Affectionately known as "The Island in the Sun," this world-renowned ski resort beckons enthusiasts with its exceptional ski area, captivating landscapes, convivial ambience, and renowned nightlife, creating an idyllic year-round destination.

Skiing at Alpe d'Huez is an immersive journey into the vastness of the mountains, with 840 skiable hectares and 250 kilometres of slopes. The panoramic view from the summit of Pic Blanc at 3330 metres above sea level evokes 360° of emotion, setting the stage for an unparalleled skiing experience. A unique feature that skiers adore is the ability to traverse kilometres without relying on ski lifts, allowing them to revel in the expansive beauty of the estate.

For the thrill-seekers, three legendary slopes await, each offering a unique blend of sensations and emotions. La Sarenne, the longest piste in Europe, stretches over 16 kilometres of pure happiness between the lofty Pic Blanc and the breathtaking Gorges de Sarenne. Meanwhile, La Grave boasts high-mountain landscapes and off-piste adventures, with views of the majestic La Meije. The Tunnel, a passage reserved for the fearless, challenges skiers with a 200-metre-long cave before descending one of the steepest mogul fields in French skiing.

For riders, freestyle enthusiasts, and experienced skiers, the snowpark offers a dynamic playground, evolving throughout the winter to foster progression and improvement. The vast off-piste areas in the French Alps, with more than 70 routes, cater to the cravings of big slope enthusiasts, ski tour lovers, and powder snow aficionados.

Beyond the exhilarating skiing experience, the Alpe d'Huez Grand Domaine Ski area is connected to six charming village resorts, including Auris-en-Oisans, Villard-Reculas, Oz-en-Oisans, Vaujany, La Garde-en-Oisans, and Freney d'Oisans. This interconnected network adds an extra layer of exploration, allowing skiers to discover the beauty nestled in the valleys.

Alpe d'Huez offers a Nordic area at the foot of the Grandes Rousses for those who prefer the rhythmic glide of cross-country skiing. With 50 kilometres of Nordic ski slopes, both recreational and sportive, enthusiasts can immerse themselves in the serene beauty of this winter wonderland.

What we love

- We loved the luxurious and spacious interior of Chalet Douceur
- The mountain views are incredible - don't forget to pack your camera!
- The kids adored having their own bedroom with 2 bunk beds - perfect for larger families

What you should know...

- It was great for us as separate families that all the bedrooms had their own bathrooms.
- A cot and high chair are available on request for the youngest guests
- Both the double bedroom and the twin bedroom have TVs for your entertainment
