Location & Local Information

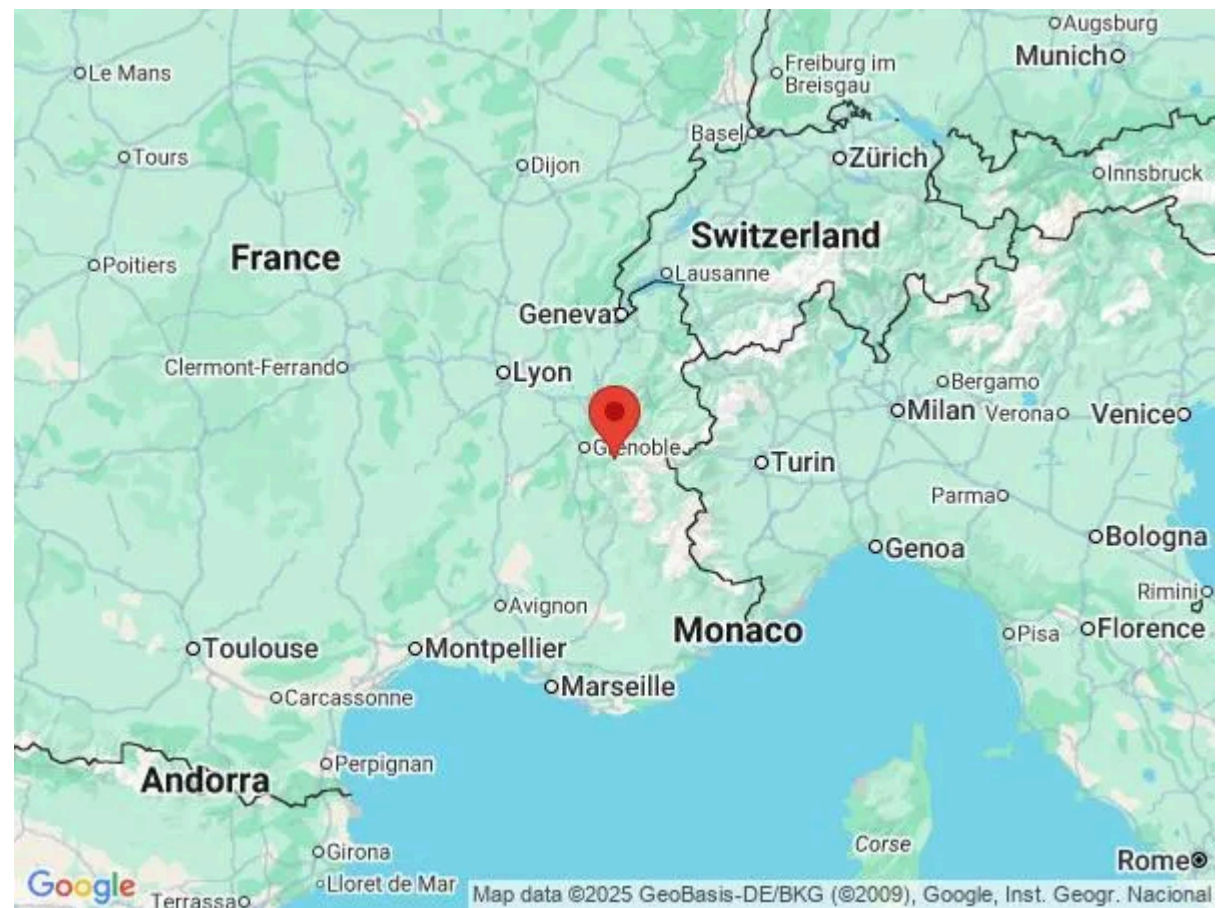

Set in the heart of the renowned Alpe d'Huez, Apartment Plein de Vie enjoys a prime location in what is affectionately known as "The Island in the Sun." This iconic ski resort, celebrated for its family-friendly atmosphere and thrilling sports offerings, stands tall among the most famous destinations for winter enthusiasts. However, Alpe d'Huez is not just a winter wonderland; it beckons visitors with its year-round allure, captivating both summer and winter enthusiasts alike.

The apartment's doorstep opens to a vibrant tapestry of amenities and attractions that define the charm of Alpe d'Huez. For skiing aficionados, the exceptional ski area is a playground of endless possibilities. With its high altitude, the omnipresent Sarenne glacier, and a network of over 1000 snow guns, the ski area guarantees a pristine blanket of snow throughout the season. This setting allows enthusiasts to revel in long descents and relish the substantial difference in altitude that characterises the region.

What sets Alpe d'Huez apart and adds to the thrill for skiers is the opportunity to conquer slopes that stretch for several kilometres. Five routes, boasting nearly 10,000 metres of elevation change, promise an exhilarating experience of almost an hour and a half of uninterrupted skiing—an adventure that transcends the typical lift-dependent escapades.

The proximity of Apartment Plein de Vie to the resort centre, a mere 5 metres away, ensures that the heartbeat of Alpe d'Huez is right at your doorstep. The Telecentre, standing just 200 metres away, becomes the gateway to the expansive ski area, offering seamless access to the slopes, while the nearest track, Le Signal, beckons with its promise of thrilling descents. In addition, the ski school is conveniently within reach, making this location an ideal haven for both seasoned skiers and those eager to embark on their snowy adventures.
