Villa Carrone is a distinctive property in the Puglia countryside, a stone's throw away from Carovigno on the south coast of Italy. The residence comprises a main house with four bedrooms and an additional suite housed in the original white-washed Trullo structure. The property is surrounded by charming gardens, featuring scented citrus trees that add a refreshing touch to the atmosphere.

The main villa, a single-story, detached structure spanning 180m², boasts four bedrooms and can comfortably accommodate up to eight guests, ideal for a family holiday, or a group of friends' sharing. Inside, you'll find a cosy seating area with two sofas, cottage-style wooden furniture, an open-hearth fireplace, and a smart TV. A farmhouse style dining room is perfect for some informal indoor entertaining. The hallway leads to four well-appointed bedrooms.

The exterior of Villa Carrone is defined by electric gates, dry stone wall boundaries, and paved terraces. A small citrus grove and an organic vegetable garden contribute to the charm. The highlight is the private saltwater step-entry swimming pool, surrounded by relaxing sun loungers. A pergola-covered patio houses a fully equipped summer kitchen, complete with an oven and BBQ.
