Overview

Welcome to Maison La Longue Vue, a splendid three-bedroom villa situated in stunning Rochebonne, France, a beach stroll away from the historic port city of Saint-Malo. Suitable for four adults and 2 children, this charming terraced house spans 90m² over two levels and is thoughtfully designed for comfort and style – making for a memorable French escape.

As you step inside the welcoming living and dining area you'll find it hard to take your eyes off the open sea views bursting through the villa's large, light-giving windows. The cosy space's tastefully nautical décor and comfy furnishings make it the bright hub of the house. The interconnected but still open kitchen comes fully equipped with modern amenities, making it a joy to whip up anything from a summer salad to a family feast. Imagine sitting down to a fabulous French meal with the Atlantic Ocean lapping against your doorstep.

A shower and separate WC on the ground floor complete the convenient layout. The sun-soaked cobblestone terrace extends the living space to the beach, providing the perfect spot to savour the sea views and cook something tasty on the barbecue.

Upstairs reveals three bedrooms, amply accommodating four adults and two children. The master bedroom boasts a queen-sized bed and a dressing room. The second room comes complete with a double bed, and the third room has a more playful arrangement thanks to a bunk-bed setup. An additional shower/WC on this level completes the convenience.

Given such easy comfort some might find it hard to leave the villa, but the bright blue sea barely 20 steps away couldn't be more convenient. Take a morning walk along the beach to Saint-Malo, dive in the ocean, or simply watch the kids play in the sand from the terrace. You can't get much more than that!

Location & Local Information

Located in a residential area of Rochebonne on Brittany's Emerald Coast, and within walking distance of the historic port city of Saint-Malo, Maison La Longue Vue is ideally situated. In terms of the immediate vicinity, the villa has convenient access to a supermarket (300m), restaurants (1km), a park (800m), and of course the closest sandy beach (20m).

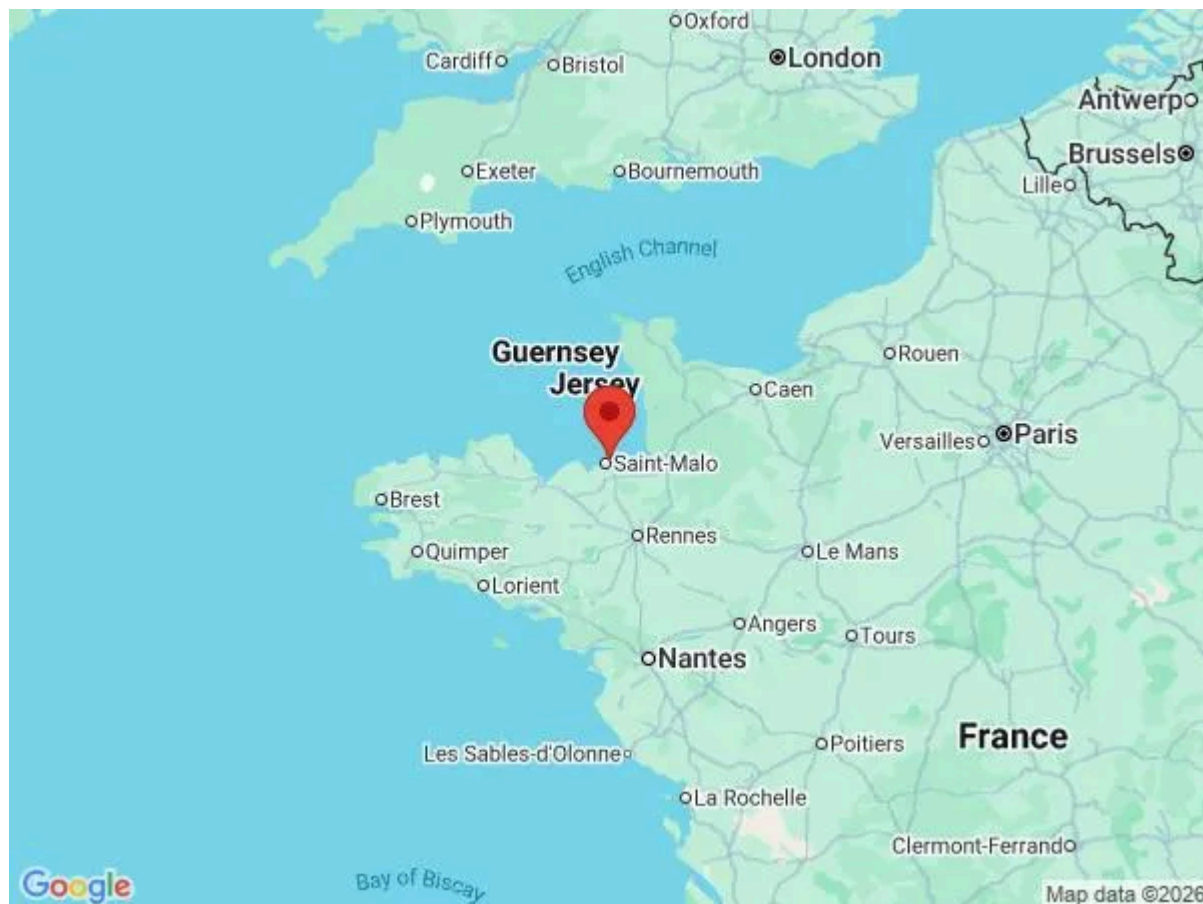

There is no shortage of beaches at your disposal, but nor is there a shortage of activities. There's the Saint-Malo's thermal baths (2km), and in the sports harbour of Saint-Malo itself you'll find all manner of water-based activities: sailing, jet skiing, kitesurfing, fishing, kayaking, paddleboarding and scuba diving.

Saint-Malo itself, known as the Corsair City and the setting for the novel and Netflix series "All the Light We Cannot See", is a historical gem enjoying a privileged position on a rocky peninsula. This walled city is dominated by an impressive castle and the enchanting "Intra Muros" route which you can take around the ramparts of the old town.

But Saint-Malo isn't the only interesting town nearby. Across the harbour from Saint-Malo you'll find the beautiful Dinard (14.8km), known for its Belle Epoque villas. The picturesque Cancale (13.8km) is known for its seafood, particularly oysters and shellfish. From Cancale you can also see the marvellous Mont Saint-Michel (57km) across the bay.
