

Villa Deruta

Region: Umbria Sleeps: 12

Overview

Villa Deruta is a traditional stone farmhouse which hails from the early 1800s. Surrounded by olive groves, lemons trees, aloe and lavender which have been cultivated for soap production, the house looks out over this idyllic landscape and the fragrant scents fill the air. Sleeping up to 12 guests, this is a delightful place to stay for a large family or a group of friends.

The ground floor of this rustic farm building was once used as stables for housing animals, while the families would live upstairs. Now, the home has been fully-transformed and brought up to date to meet the needs of modern families, while still retaining the original charm and character, through the preservation of open-fireplaces, original floorings and ceiling beams.

The ground floor of this charming villa boasts a spacious living room, featuring two distinct sitting areas with two sofas each and a music system for a delightful ambiance. Adjacent is a cozy sitting room with a fireplace and TV. The dining room, adorned with doors opening to the garden, offers an intimate setting with a table for eight. The fitted kitchen, styled in a country theme, is equipped with all you could need during you stay, including an oven, hob, fridge freezer, dishwasher, microwave, toaster, and coffee machine.

One of the bedrooms, the master room with a double-sized canopy bed, chaise lounge, and an en-suite bathroom, is conveniently situated on the ground floor. The first floor hosts the remaining five bedrooms, comprising of two double bedrooms with en-suite bathrooms and three bedrooms with twin beds. A well-appointed family bathroom with a bath, shower, sink, and WC caters to the needs of the guests.

The outdoor space is a highlight of the villa, featuring sweeping lawns surrounded by lavender bushes and olive trees, creating an idyllic oasis. Guests can unwind, lounge, dine al-fresco, and enjoy a refreshing swim in the inviting private pool.

This part of Umbria is a lovely place to stay for nature-lovers; close to the villa you can get out and explore nature trails, walking routes and try a range of sports. Under 5km away there is a world-class golf course which offers tennis courts, a restaurant and also a luxury spa as well as the golf course.

Surrounding the house, guests can visit numerous tiny villages and bustling towns including Umbertide and Perugia for days of shopping, dining out and visiting the local museums.

Location & Local Information

Lying in the breathtaking landscapes of Italy's verdant heart, Villa Deruta is a spacious family residence surrounded by the beautiful countryside. The expansive parkland near the home offers an array of natural wonders; including rivers, lakes, and woodlands, providing a perfect setting for leisurely walks, cycling adventures, and tranquil picnics.

Keen golfers will be thrilled to learn that the fantastic Antognolla Golf Course is just down the road. Featuring a splendid golf course as well as tennis courts, cycling routes, a luxury spa, and even an fine dining restaurant. This diverse venue ensures an enjoyable day out with activities for everyone.

When the urge to discover Umbria's charming villages and towns arises, Villa Deruta is conveniently situated. Beginning with the historic town of Umbertide, located just 14km from Villa Deruta, guests can immerse themselves in a rich history spanning 2000 years. Umbertide boasts archaeological ruins, a castle, a defensive fortress, and medieval churches, including the captivating Church of Santa Maria della Pietà adorned with remarkable frescoes hailing from the 1400s. The town also offers museums, galleries, restaurants, and bars, providing a well-rounded cultural experience. Moreover, Umbertide is renowned for its locally produced ceramics.

A mere 20km away, you can also visit the vibrant city of Perugia. The best place to start exploring is the enchanting Piazza IV Novembre. From here you can meander through pastel-coloured streets enclosed by historic walls, discovering imposing palaces, churches, and art galleries. Perugia is celebrated for hosting various festivals, including the famous chocolate festival in October, showcasing the city's chocolate-making heritage. The July Jazz festival features open-air performances and lively festivities, providing an engaging experience for locals and visitors alike.

Beyond the charming towns and villages that define Umbria, the region boasts expansive outdoor landscapes and natural wonders. In the vicinity of the residence, one can choose to ascend the 961-meter-high Monte Tezio, offering a rewarding trekking experience. Alternatively, for a more leisurely outing, explore the trails tracing ancient pilgrim routes. If a beach day, complete with water sports and sun-soaked relaxation, beckons, Lake Trasimeno, located 47km away, provides an ideal destination.

What we love

- Villa Deruta sits in idyllic countryside overlooking the stunning Umbrian valleys.
- The historic villa has plenty of space to sleep up to 12 guests across the six bedrooms.
- Outdoors, you will find a vast garden offering guests incredible views, dining terraces and a private swimming pool.
- The house enjoys a peaceful rural setting, though you can easily access nearby towns and villages such as Umbertide.

What you should know...

- One of the double bedrooms has an additional single bed for the use of a child.
- Due to the secluded setting, you will need a car to get around, there is plenty of parking on site.
- Check-in outside of arrival time may be subject to an extra cost. Please enquire for more details.
- The pool is not fenced, so children should be supervised when outdoors.
- Due to the many steps and the property built over two floors, it may be not suitable for those with mobility issues
