Surrounded by rolling hills, vineyards, and olive groves, this picturesque village is a quiet retreat from the bustling nearby coastline. Stroll the village's cobblestone streets amidst charming rustic architecture for an authentic experience of Provençal beauty and lifestyle.

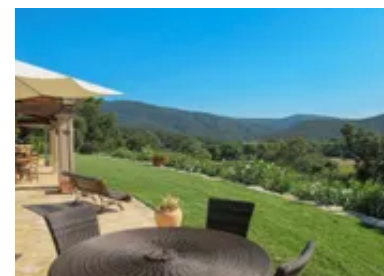

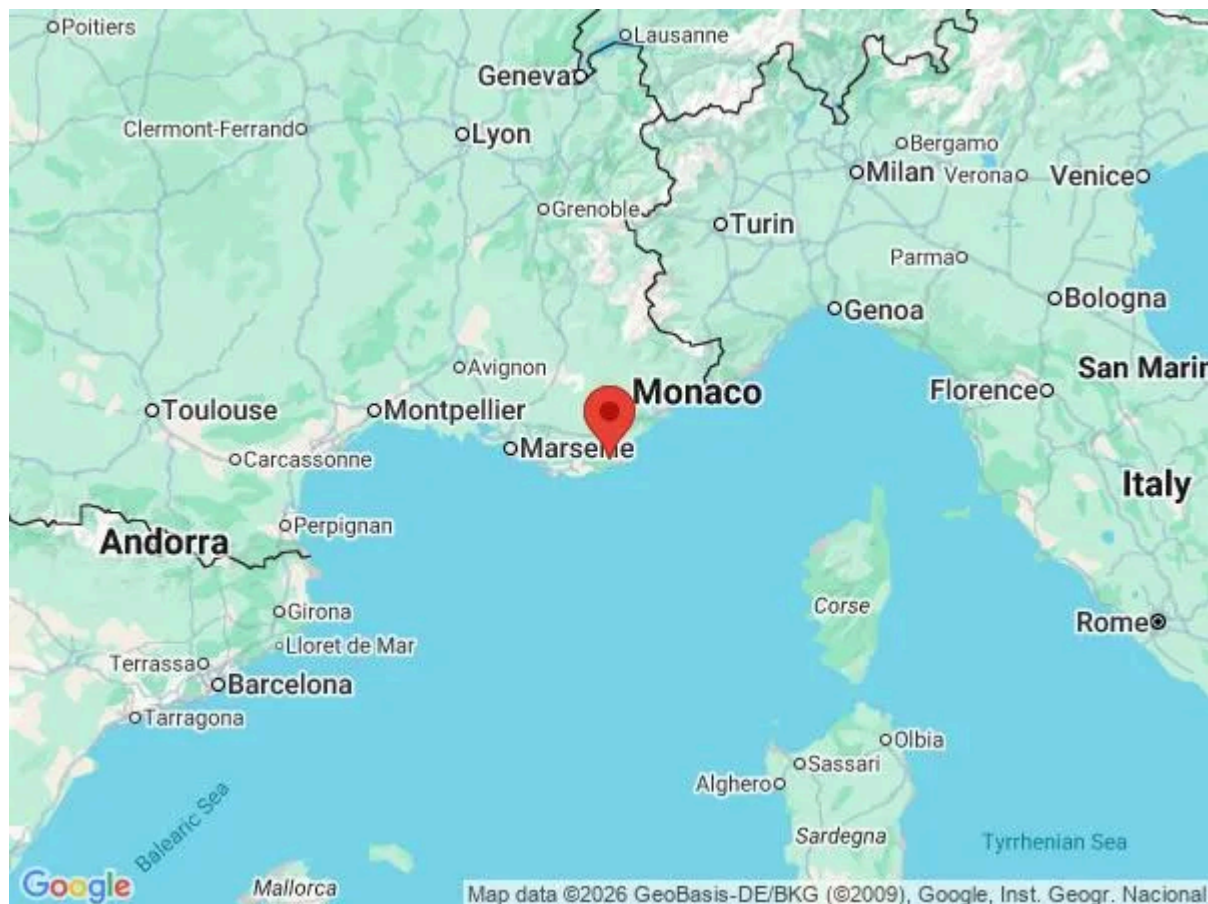

The Massif des Maures mountain range itself offers a wealth of verdant landscapes for the nature enthusiast. If you can drag yourself away from nearby vineyards and wineries, the area offers great opportunities for scenic hiking.

In the nearby town of Cogolin (9km) can be found a wide range of shops and restaurants. The area also boasts easy access to seaside resorts including the family-focused Cavalaire-sur-Mer, which is particularly renowned for its water sports including jet skiing, sailing, windsurfing, and scuba diving.

The village of Gassin (20 minutes) is perched high on a rocky outcrop commanding unbeatable views of the Bay of Saint-Tropez and coastline. Gassin is commonly classified among the most beautiful villages in France.
