Location & Local Information

Situated midway between the turquoise waters of the French Riviera and the ski resorts of the Maritime Alps, Saint-Cézaire-sur-Siagne sits on a plateau and offers many scenic spots to take in the whole Côte d'Azur and surrounding Provençal countryside.

The village of Saint-Cézaire-sur-Siagne is well known for its produce, particularly olive oil, goat's cheese and honey. With a supermarket, restaurants, bars and cafes, this high Provençal hideaway is the perfect place to take things slow. But that doesn't mean there aren't things to see. The nearby Grottes de Saint-Cézaire are a spectacular cave complex rich in fascinating geological formations that's accessible to all the family. The village also boasts a 12th century chapel, ancient wells and plenty of opportunity for scenic hiking.

Indeed, the Parc naturel régional des Préalpes d'Azur – a nature reserve considered to be the preamble to the soaring summits of the French Alps – is only a 15-minute drive away. This sanctuary of clifftop villages, spectacular scenery and incredible biodiversity is a must-see for hikers and nature lovers.

The nearby town of Grasse (25 minutes by car) is the world's perfume capital. Since the 19th century fragrance finders have combed the surrounding countryside for the flowers which ultimately became some of the world's best known and most luxurious scents. With more than 30 perfume factories there is ample opportunity for guided tours showing you the art of perfume making. At perfumeries like Fragonard, Molinard, and the Galimard Factory and Museum, you'll even be able to create your own perfume to take home.

Famous coastal resort towns such as Cannes (50 minutes driving) are accessible via scenic drives that descend through the Provençal hills to the clear blue waters of the Mediterranean. But if you don't want to travel that far each day for a natural swim, the beautiful Lac de Saint-Cassien and its many freshwater swimming spots can be reached in 20 minutes by car.
