

Maison La Canopee

Region: French Riviera (Cote D'Azur) Sleeps: 8

Overview

Maison La Canopée is a charming family home that promises an idyllic escape for up to eight guests seeking an inviting abode in the sun-soaked bliss of the Mediterranean. With traditional Provençal architecture, lush greenery and gorgeous sea views along the Saint Tropez peninsula, this villa will take your breath away.

Spread over three levels, stepping inside reveals a large living and dining area buttressed by wooden ceiling beams. Whether you're admiring the sea views from the dining table, preparing a locally inspired meal in the open-plan kitchen, or sitting back in one of the comfortable living areas, this homey space will be the hub of your holiday.

This central floor also houses two twin bedrooms. On the lower ground floor, you'll find another twin bedroom along with an open playroom with games including table football - the kind of game that will entertain older ones as well as children. Finally, on the upper floor rests the master bedroom with super-King sized bed. All bedrooms are equipped with air-conditioning, keeping you cool during those hot summer nights.

However the real shining attraction of Maison La Canopée is the extensive terrace and garden where the turquoise water of the swimming pool glistens in the sun. Boasting an outdoor shower, pool house with dining set, barbecue, table tennis table, boules, and a range of garden furniture, this is a villa you'll never want to leave.

But if the allure of the Côte D'Azur draws you away from the maison, the villa is conveniently located just 2.5km away from the nearest beach and the picturesque seaside town of Sainte-Maxime with shops, restaurants and bars a plenty.

Other places worth visiting during your stay include Port Grimaud and - of course - the glitz and glamour of Saint-Tropez. Away from the coastline, head to nearby hilltop villages such as Ramatuelle, Gassin, Grimaud and the Massif des Maures for hiking, mountain biking and horse-riding.
