Location & Local Information

Situated in a renowned bathing resort on the southwest coast of Brittany and only a short walk from the closest beach (300m), Maison Courlis is a treat of relaxation and rejuvenation. Thanks to the villa's central location, local amenities and sights are within easy reach, including a supermarket (4-minute drive, 15-minute walk), and a selection of restaurants, creperies, bakeries, cafes, galleries, boutiques, a cinema and even a casino within 5-minutes by car or 20-minutes walking.

The seaside resort is famous for the Carnac Stones, one of the most extensive Neolithic standing stone collections in the world - think of a sprawling Stonehenge set out in neat rows like granite vineyards. These neolithic structures and their surrounds provide a fantastic setting for exploration on foot or by bike.

Located as it is on a narrow peninsula, the area boasts five sandy beaches, each as nice as the last and within easy access from Maison Courlis. Don't forget to reserve yourself a day of Thalasso and spa treatment of which the town is well known (4-minute drive). The local golf course (20-minute drive) ensures a scenic day on the links.
