Entering at the ground floor you'll find the first of five bedrooms, featuring a queen-sized bed, seamless connection to the terrace, an additional room consisting of two single beds, and a separate bath/WC.

But it is on the first floor where the welcome mat is really rolled out. With a spacious living/dining area, cosy hearth fireplace, satellite TV and access to the terrace for breathtaking panoramic views across the Provençal countryside. The well-appointed open kitchen, equipped with all the modern amenities, is perfect for culinary enthusiasts, whether you're whipping up a Mediterranean salad or a feast for family and friends. Adjacent is another bedroom with a queen-sized bed. This floor also houses a separate shower and WC for added convenience.

Venturing upwards to the second floor, you'll find two rooms with sloping ceilings. One features two single beds, and the other comes with a queen-sized bed, and a bath/WC. From here you can step out onto the balcony. This floor also includes a separate shower.

But perhaps it is outside where Maison La Garance comes into its own. The villa is embraced by a sprawling, terraced garden spanning 1,750 m², dotted with a wildlife garden, terrace furnishings and deck chairs, turquoise swimming pool, outdoor shower and, of course, the pool house – which comes complete with a fridge and cooking stove to ensure pool-side dining is as hassle-free as diving into the pool itself.

Location & Local Information

Tucked away in a residential area of Grasse in the Provençal countryside, a 10-minute drive from the town centre, and 7 minutes from the nearest supermarket, Maison La Garance is ideally situated.

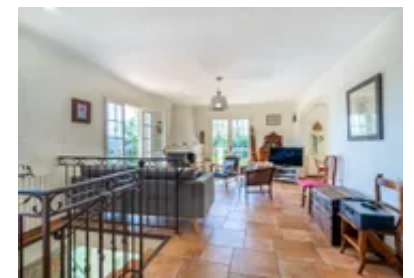

Grasse is the world's perfume capital. Since the 19th century fragrance finders have combed the surrounding countryside for the flowers which ultimately became some of the world's best known and most luxurious scents. With more than 30 perfume factories there is ample opportunity for guided tours showing you the art of perfume making. At perfumeries like Fragonard, Molinard, and the Galimard Factory and Museum, you'll even be able to create your own perfume to take home.

If you're keen on water sports then you're in luck, because there is no shortage of fun activities available along this stretch of the Côte d'Azur, with Cannes and nearby beaches only a 30-minute drive away. Here you'll find options for scuba diving, jet skiing, water skiing, wakeboarding, paddle boarding, sailing, kitesurfing, kayaking, boat hire, and even parasailing. This glamorous stretch of coastline is of course brimming with fantastic restaurants, cafes, bars, and nightlife. There are also multiple golf courses in the vicinity, many of which come with stunning views along the coastline in addition to the links.

Situated midway between the turquoise waters of the French Riviera and the ski resorts of the Maritime Alps, Grasse and its surrounds offer scenic spots to take in the whole Côte d'Azur and Provençal countryside. Nature lovers will enjoy the nearby Roquevignon Departmental Nature Park in the heights of Grasse and only 15 minutes from the villa. These foothills to the Mediterranean Alps are rich in biodiversity and hikers are well rewarded by panoramic views.
