

Villa Goyave

Region: Aquitaine Sleeps: 8

Overview

Well-situated in a picturesque seaside resort town on France's southwest coastline, Maison Goyave effortlessly blends comfort with coastal style to create a dream getaway for up to eight guests.

On entering the villa, guests are welcomed by airy living area made luminous by floods of natural light thanks to Villa Goyave's south-west facing position. Tastefully decorated to reflect the lush greenery outside, this space is the epitome of the indoor-outdoor lifestyle. Complete with plush sofas, the living area seamlessly transitions into the fully equipped open-plan kitchen. Culinary enthusiasts will revel in this space thanks to its modern appliances, views to verdant scenery, and proximity to the accompanying dining nook. Whether you're tossing together a summer salad or preparing a holiday feast for family and friends, this kitchen has you covered.

On the ground floor guests will find the first of four well-appointed bedrooms. Furnished with a queen-sized bed, this room boasts easy terrace access. Ascending the stairs reveals three more bedrooms, two of these feature twin single beds, with one enjoying entry to the balcony while the other boasts an en suite. Lastly, a final room with a double bed completes the living quarters.

For moments of relaxation and entertainment, the spacious terrace beckons. This sun-drenched space includes an al fresco dining table, cushioned booth seating area and further deck chairs to keep everyone comfortable. As the warmth of the day unfolds the terrace proves a serene haven made private by the verdant backdrop of an adjacent forest.

Whether you're seeking a restful retreat or an adventure-filled escape, Villa Goyave's modern comforts and proximity to the beach ensure a holiday you won't easily forget.

Location & Local Information

Ideally situated in a residential area of the seaside resort town, Villa Goyave is close to a bevy on conveniences, including supermarkets (4-minute drive, 13-minute walk), restaurants, cafes, bars, shops, boutiques and at least six beaches (2-minute drive, 7-minute walk). France's long Atlantic coast boasts long beaches of fine sand that is ideal for sunbathing, surfing and beachcombing.

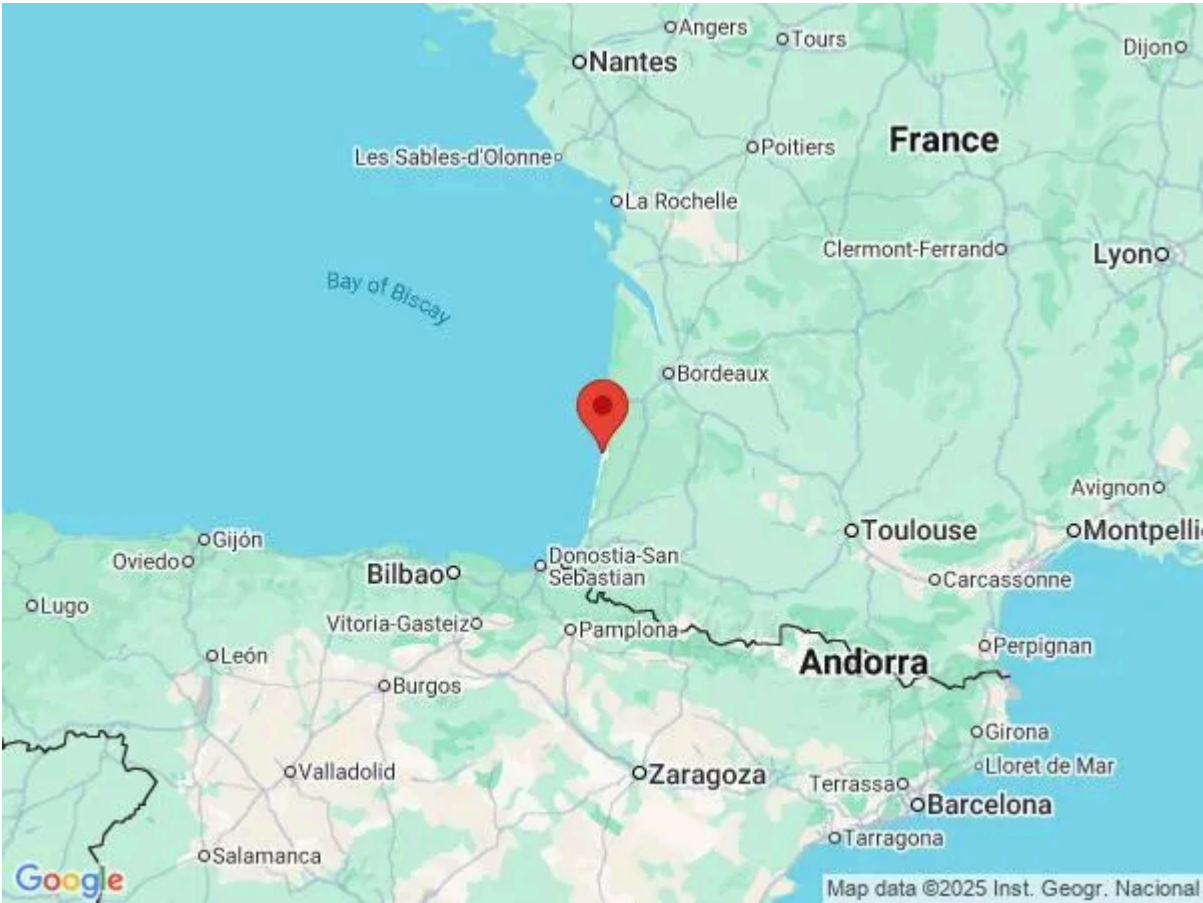

The beautiful lake known as Etang d'Aureilhan (15-minute drive) is almost as rich in history as it is in beauty. It is no wonder the lake has long attracted the world's rich and famous. The stunning Château Woolsack can be found on the lake's banks. Built in 1911 for Hugh Grosvenor, 2nd Duke of Westminster, this lakeside manor was designed by architects Detmar Blow and Fernand Billery to look like the Tudor style home of Rudyard Kipling built by Cecil Rhodes in South Africa. The home has welcomed guests including Coco Chanel, Charlie Chaplin, Salvador Dali, and even Winston Churchill, who created approximately 20 paintings on the banks of Lake Aureilhan. Don't forget to take a stroll along the Promenade Fleurie, a lovely walk through flowers, shrubs and ornamental gardens along the edge of the lake.

The renown seaside resort of Arcachon (65-minute drive) is a great option for a day trip. In the neighbouring town of Le Teich you'll find a popular ornithological reserve, a magical spot for birdwatchers to see a wide range of bird species in their natural environment. Don't forget to bring your binoculars!

Running south from Arcachon you'll find sandiest stretch of coastline in Europe, running 200 kilometres southwards to Biarritz. Don't forget to check out the Dune de Pilat, Europe's highest sand dune whose shifting summit provides panoramic views across to Cap Ferret.
