

Apartment Aiguille

Region: Espace Killy Sleeps: 8

Overview

Nestled in the heart of the Tignes le Lac district on rue de la Poste, the recently renovated Apartment Aiguille is a winter haven for ski enthusiasts. This charming abode is situated a mere 50 metres from the Chardonnet ski lift and offers the quintessential ski-in/ski-out experience. Alternatively, for those who prefer the chairlift, a leisurely stroll to Palafour takes only a few minutes.

Perched on the residence's first floor, the apartment exudes a chic and warm ambience. Spanning an expansive 85 square metres, it has been thoughtfully designed to marry elegance with practicality, ensuring unparalleled comfort throughout your ski escapade. The interior reveals two tastefully appointed double bedrooms and a delightful child's retreat furnished with two snug bunk beds—a cosy nook for a party of four.

The entrance hallway graciously welcomes visitors, providing a dedicated space to stow away ski clothing and footwear. Thoughtful additions such as shelves for helmets and hooks for coats underscore the apartment's commitment to practicality. Meanwhile, the balcony seamlessly extends the living space, treating residents to a captivating vista of the glistening lake and the majestic mountains that embrace the surroundings.

Should you wish to elevate your stay further, optional amenities such as a high chair, baby cot, and WiFi (via a 4G box) are available upon request, ensuring your retreat to Apartment Aiguille is tailor-made to exceed your expectations.

Beyond the apartment's confines, Tignes beckons winter sports enthusiasts with its collaboration with Val d'Isère, forming the expansive Tignes-Val d'Isère ski area and boasting 300 kilometres of slopes. Yet, Tignes isn't merely a haven for skiers; it unveils a tapestry of original and diverse activities—from the thrill of ice diving to the excitement of skijoring, dog sledging, and even the novelty of ice karting. Each experience promises a unique and joyous adventure, inviting guests to revel in the delights of Tignes without restraint.

The chalet is available year-round, but facilities, property and local amenities may vary depending upon season.

Location & Local Information

Situated in the heart of Tignes's dynamic and multifaceted resort, Apartment Aiguille is more than just a lodging; it's a gateway to a world of diverse attractions and activities. With its capacity for 30,000 beds dedicated to tourism, Tignes welcomes a large and heterogeneous public, making it an ideal destination for solo travellers, families, or friends seeking an unforgettable alpine experience.

Year-round accessibility is a hallmark of Tignes, and the Grande Motte glacier, towering at 3,456 metres, allows for summer skiing, attracting both seasoned athletes and enthusiasts alike. The resort's claim to fame extends beyond skiing and hosting major sporting events such as the World Championships and European Cup.

Voted the most sporty city in France in 2008, Tignes lives up to its reputation as more than just a skiing haven. The expansive Tignes Val d'Isère ski area, boasting 300 km of slopes, offers an exceptional playground for winter sports enthusiasts. Tignes caters to the adventurous spirit, from ice diving and toboggan runs to snow tubing and sledgedog rides.

The resort prides itself on being inclusive, with "1,2,3... SKI START" areas specially designed for families and beginners. In the summer, the options abound – paragliding, microlight flights, tennis, beach volleyball, golf on Europe's highest course, archery, mountain biking, paddle, pedal boating, sailing, and water jumping on the lake.

Surrounded by the breathtaking Vanoise National Park, Tignes showcases protected flora and fauna, including chamois, ibexes, marmots, and golden eagles. As an eco-responsible resort, Tignes earned two flowers in the Towns and Villages in bloom competition in 2017. The exceptional exposure at an altitude of 2,100 metres ensures a 360° panorama with good sunny conditions, revealing frozen lakes, glaciers, and waterfalls that will undoubtedly amaze visitors.

And let's not forget the local gastronomy – indulge in blueberry pie and savour various Savoyard cheese-based dishes that add a delightful touch to the mountain experience. So, when you choose Apartment Aiguille, you're not just selecting accommodation; you're embarking on an adventure in a vibrant, sporty, and environmentally conscious mountain paradise.
