Villa Koru

Region: Korcula Sleeps: 6

Overview

Villa Koru is a serene three-bedroom retreat perched above the Adriatic Sea on the island of Korčula, with direct access to the water via private steps. Sleeping up to six guests, this seafront villa offers a refined blend of modern design and traditional character in a peaceful, natural setting.

The light-filled living area is furnished with comfort and style in mind, seamlessly connecting to the dining space and a well-appointed kitchen equipped with high-end appliances and generous preparation areas, ideal for relaxed family meals or indulgent holiday feasts. Upstairs, three elegant bedrooms each feature king-sized beds, sleek ensuites with walk-in showers, and private balconies offering panoramic sea views.

Outdoors, the villa's layout flows towards the sea, starting with a sun-soaked terrace and shaded alfresco dining area. A sparkling pool, framed by Mediterranean greenery and comfortable loungers, invites slow, sun-drenched days. The outdoor kitchen and grill area are perfect for evening gatherings under the stars, while the private sea access allows for spontaneous swims in the villa's crystal-clear waters.

Location & Local Information

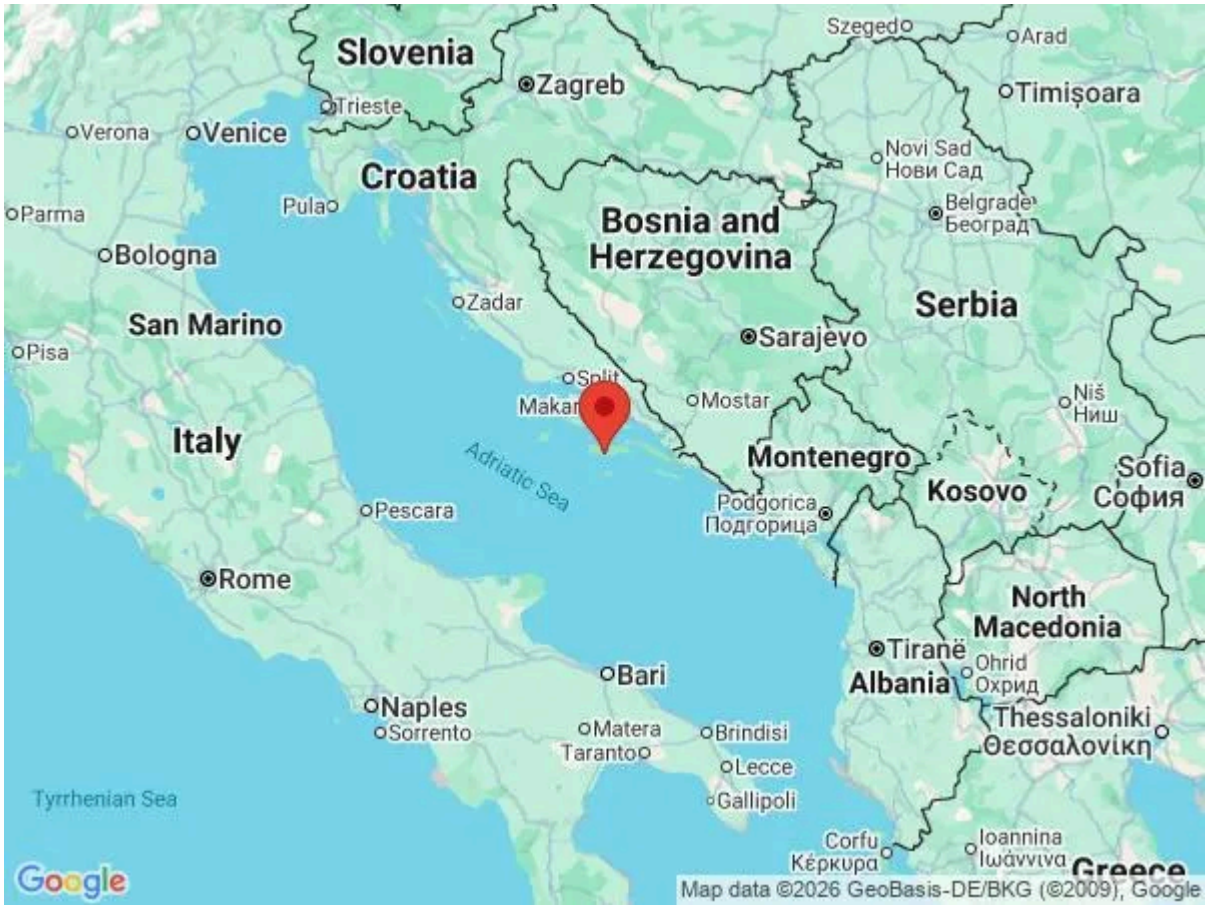

Villa Koru enjoys a peaceful setting in a quiet village on Korčula, often referred to as the Emerald Isle. Less visited than neighbouring Hvar, the island offers an unhurried pace and authentic charm without compromising on culture, cuisine, or natural beauty.

Just under forty minutes away, Korčula Old Town, dubbed “Little Dubrovnik”, is a captivating maze of Venetian-style architecture, red rooftops, and medieval walls perched on a peninsula. It’s a place steeped in history, with St. Mark’s Cathedral standing proudly at its highest point and local legend claiming it as the birthplace of Marco Polo.

The island also caters to culinary explorers. Sample local wines and bruschetta by the water at Mariola Wine Bar, or climb to the rooftop of a 15th-century tower for a cocktail at Massimo, where drinks arrive via pulley and the views are unforgettable.
