

Chalet Bouc Blanc

Region: 3 Valleys Sleeps: 10

Overview

Ideally located at the end of Allée des Cerisiers, the Chalet Bouc Blanc is a luxurious retreat offering an unparalleled experience in the heart of Courchevel. Perched with a commanding view of the Dent du Villard and the Courchevel Valley, this chalet promises accommodation and a visual feast extending from the slopes to the sky. Spread gracefully over four levels, the chalet unfolds its charm around a central staircase, showcasing chic designer architecture blending seamlessly with the natural elements of stone and wood. The interior is a haven of sophistication, thoughtfully adorned in soft tones and calming materials. As you step inside, the expansive living spaces unfold, boasting a 360° view through bay windows that frame the breathtaking Dent du Villard and valley beyond. Chalet Bouc Blanc accommodates 10 guests across five ensuite bedrooms, including a spacious master. The top level houses a living space where two lounge areas, an open-fitted kitchen, and a dining area for up to twenty guests are harmoniously united. A central brazier-style fireplace warms the surroundings, creating an inviting atmosphere, and guests can step outside onto the terrace or balcony to soak in the panoramic vistas. But Chalet Bouc Blanc isn't just about the visual spectacle—it's a sanctuary of relaxation. The wellness area beckons with a large swimming pool, two saunas, a hammam, and two Japanese baths reminiscent of luxurious catamarans. After a day on the slopes, unwind in the wellness area or gather around the fire in the lounge for the ultimate holiday indulgence. For a seamless stay, daily maintenance by a dedicated housekeeper ensures your comfort, and guests can wake up to a cooked breakfast courtesy of the chalet's breakfast service - either enjoyed at the dining table or on the terrace, setting the tone for a day filled with adventure in Courchevel. The authentic alpine village of Le Praz, situated nearby, adds its charm to the Bouc Blanc experience, with its timeless streets, period farms, and a delightful lake. In winter or summer, Le Praz offers many activities, making it a destination for all seasons.

The chalet is available year-round, but facilities, property and local amenities may vary depending upon season.

Winter | Ski Chalet

December - April

In the winter, Chalet Bouc Blanc transforms into a snowy paradise. Perched with a commanding view of the Dent du Villard and the Courchevel Valley, the chalet becomes a cozy retreat after a day on the slopes. The chalet's design allows for an immersive experience, with bay windows framing the snowy landscape. The top-level living space, warmed by a central fireplace, becomes a gathering point, and the terrace offers a chance to soak in the winter wonderland. The wellness area, equipped with a large swimming pool, saunas, hammam, and Japanese baths, becomes a sanctuary for relaxation after a day of skiing. Le Praz, the nearby alpine village, adds its charm to the winter experience, offering a picturesque setting for seasonal activities.

Summer | Alpine Chalet

July - August

As the snow gives way to lush greenery, Chalet Bouc Blanc remains an inviting haven in the summer months. The chalet's interior, adorned in soft tones, creates a soothing atmosphere, and the terrace provides a perfect spot to enjoy the warmth and panoramic vistas. The alpine village of Le Praz, with its timeless streets and period farms, comes alive in the summer, offering a charming backdrop for guests to explore. The chalet's wellness area, with its swimming pool and Japanese baths, transitions into a refreshing retreat. Summer in Courchevel invites guests to engage in a variety of outdoor activities, making Chalet Bouc Blanc an ideal destination for all seasons.

Location & Local Information

Tucked away in the serenity of Courchevel le Praz, Chalet Bouc Blanc unveils itself in a strategic location and steeped in alpine charm. A mere 400 metres from the village centre, this luxurious haven is strategically perched just 500 metres away from the Le Praz lift, ensuring easy access to the vast expanse of slopes that beckon adventure seekers.

As you step outside, the allure of Courchevel le Praz unfolds—a village nestled on a vast plateau, embraced by the enchanting forests of Courchevel. At an altitude of 1,300 metres, this resort exudes a discreet charm, offering a haven for those who seek tranquility and the sweet rhythm of mountain life. Majestic peaks such as the Dent du Villard and the Grand Bec stand sentinel, casting their majestic shadows on this alpine paradise.

Le Praz is a unique village, a harmonious blend of mountain aesthetics and Savoyard tradition. Its chalets and narrow streets promise a change of scenery, a visual feast that captivates the soul. And for skiing enthusiasts, the proximity to the Jean Blanc track, a mere 20 metres from the chalet, ensures a seamless transition from the warm interiors to the exhilarating slopes.

Strategically positioned, Courchevel le Praz offers easy access to the world's largest ski area through a network of free shuttles, ensuring that the adventure knows no bounds. The Praz cable car, a mere 500 metres away, acts as a gateway to Courchevel 1850, the highest village in the resort, unveiling endless descents for skiing enthusiasts.

As the day on the slopes concludes, Courchevel le Praz comes alive with après-ski vibrancy. The snow front buzzes with energy as skiers return, extending the day's pleasures. To culminate the alpine experience, the village boasts excellent restaurants serving delectable Savoyard specialties.

Courchevel le Praz proudly hosts the famous Praz Olympic springboard, a unique relic from the 1992 Olympic Games. Still in use today, this springboard witnessed the prowess of athletes in the Olympic ski jumping events, adding a touch of history to this idyllic alpine retreat.
