

Casetta Splendida - Borgo Egnazia

Region: Puglia Sleeps: 4

Overview

Situated in the stunning Borgo Egnazia, in the enchanting heart of Puglia, Italy, Casetta Splendida is a delightful 2-bedroom villa that epitomizes the essence of comfort and Italian charm. Accommodating four guests, two adults and two children, Casetta Splendida enjoys Borgo Egnazia's unrivalled sense of magic and glamour, including a Michelin-starred restaurant, four pools, three bars, two private beaches, and a spa.

Architect Pino Brescia's construction of a traditional Puglian 'borgo' – or fortified village – is a symphony of golden tufa limestone accented by vivid bougainvillea. Egnazia boasts a masseria, paved streets and arcades, a church, a central piazza, and several stone cottages and villas. During the day, it's a stunning froth-white world glistening under the Puglian sun. By night, countless citronella candles flicker from every nook and cranny, creating a fairytale atmosphere. It's no surprise that this is where Justin Timberlake and Jessica Biel decided to tie the knot.

Casetta Splendida is spread over two storeys and is ideal for families. It has a cosy living room with a plush sofa, dining table, satellite TV, and music system. On the ground floor, guests will also find a corner kitchen, a stone powder room with WC and shower, and a double bedroom with bunk beds (or can be used as a study).

Ascending to the first floor reveals a bedroom with a king-sized bed, satellite TV, and an Ostuni stone ensuite bathroom with a double sink, glass walk-in shower and separate tub.

One of Casetta Splendida's most enchanting features is its picturesque outdoor spaces, including a private courtyard with an al fresco dining setting and a panoramic rooftop terrace with glorious views over the froth-white rooftops of Borgo Egnazia.

Beyond Casetta Splendida, guests have access to the exclusive amenities of Borgo Egnazia, including a world-class spa, a championship golf course, and various dining options. Your stay in this charming villa promises an unforgettable escape into the heart of Puglia's beauty and Egnazia's renowned hospitality.

Location & Local Information

Set serenely near the seaside town of Savelletri on Puglia's Adriatic coastline, Egnazia is tucked between the ruins of an ancient Roman settlement (from which it takes its name) and the magnificent San Domenico championship golf course.

Of course, Puglia is renowned for its stunning sea and warm, white-sand beaches. And Egnazia boasts two private beaches, one sandy, one pebbly. Stroll through the golf course to the sea or take a free shuttle bus to a secluded, rocky cove, great for swimming. The Cala Masciola Beach Club also has a restaurant and bar to keep you going between dives in the sea.

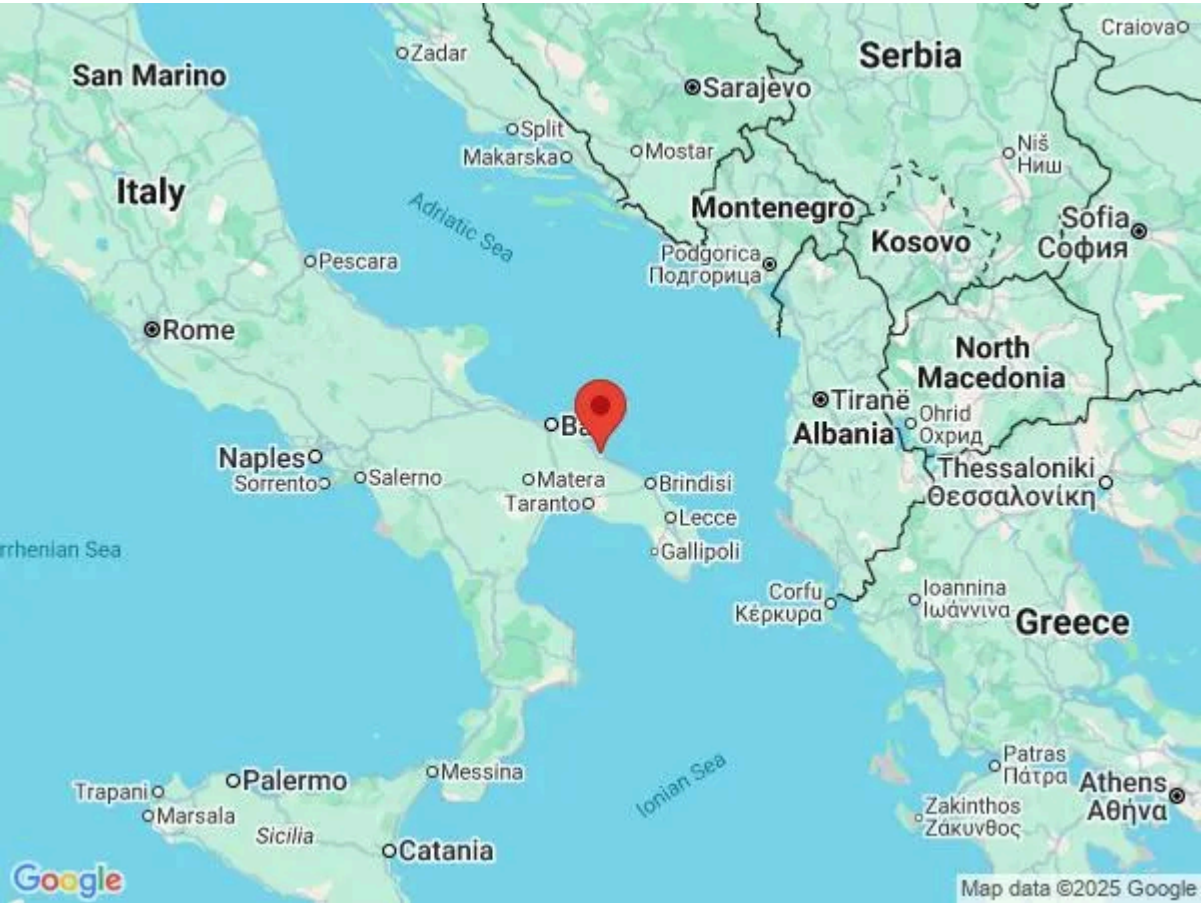

Egnazia also boasts four stunning pools. Dive into a different pool daily, drink an aperitif at a different bar every afternoon, and dine at a different gourmet restaurant every evening.

Something which no guest should pass up is the opportunity to indulge in Egnazia's stunning spa. Here, guests will find a sage-scented sanctuary where staff waft about barefoot in long robes, where fires warm and glow amber across the white stone, where massages are done with local olive oil, and where the Roman baths will have you feeling like an emperor of the good life.

There are also plenty of options for staying active. Not including the pools and private beaches, the sprawling golf course, tennis courts, and the scenic local surrounds are easily explored on foot or bicycle.

What we love

- Four bright, turquoise swimming pools beckon guests to cool off on hot days. Lounge around its borders on sun loungers and sun beds, basking in the Italian sunshine, sipping on an Aperol Spritz or a glass of delectable local vino.
- Egnazia's private beaches, one sandy and one pebbly, are easily accessible via a walk across the golf course or by taking the complimentary shuttle.
- Perhaps our favourite thing about Casetta Splendida and Borgo Egnazia, in general, is that everything is provided on-site.
