Villa Aveda

Region: Turkey Sleeps: 8

Overview

Situated in a quiet, residential street in the heart of Hisaronu, a gem among Fethiye's boutique holiday regions, Villa Aveda is a Turkish haven that promises an unforgettable stay. Set against a stunning natural backdrop, where the nightly streets are ablaze with vibrant hues, this villa beckons you to indulge in a tranquil retreat with the whole family.

As you step inside, the open-plan living area welcomes you with open arms, featuring a light, neutral, yet homely decor. The spacious lounge, adorned with sofas in calming shades of grey and russet, invites you to sink into relaxation while pops of green and red in the furnishings add a playful touch, and a wall-mounted flatscreen TV promises entertainment for your leisurely evenings. After a day of exploration, this cosy space becomes the perfect haven to unwind.

Adjacent to the lounge, an ample dining space awaits, featuring a wooden table with seating for six guests. The open kitchen, fully equipped with a hob, oven, microwave, fridge-freezer, kettle, toaster, and dishwasher, stands ready for culinary adventures.

Venturing upstairs, guests will discover the four spacious bedrooms, each decorated and furnished to the same standard as the rest of the villa. Two double rooms and a twin room, all boasting ensuite bathrooms, air conditioning, and wardrobes, ensure a restful night's sleep. A second twin room, also with air conditioning, provides additional comfort.

Stepping outside, a 32-square-metre private pool awaits, surrounded by a charming garden adorned with seating and swings. A dining table, barbecue, umbrellas, and sun loungers complete the outdoor oasis, inviting you to bask in the Turkish sun and revel in nature's embrace throughout the day.

What we love

- We love the homely, open-plan interior of Villa Aveda
- The villa has a private pool - the perfect place for a refreshing dip!
- The secured garden was a wonderful spot to relax and enjoy alfresco meals.

What you should know...

- Villa Aveda is located on a residential street close to other properties, so it may not suit those looking for more private, remote accommodation.
- The villa is treated to prevent insects, but some local fauna, such as butterflies, insects etc may still occasionally enter the property.
