

Villa Delle Pietrose

Region: Tuscany Sleeps: 10

Overview

Villa Delle Pietrose is a stunning Tuscan retreat, ideal for large families or groups, accommodating up to 10 adults and 4 children. Nestled within a vast 6000m² wine estate, the villa enjoys panoramic views of rolling hills and vineyards, just a few kilometres from Montepulciano.

The property includes a main villa and two charming garden cottages. The main house offers a spacious living room with comfortable seating and smart TV, a large kitchen, and a dining area perfect for group meals. Optional breakfast service or a private chef is available for added convenience.

Upstairs, guests will find three elegant suites—two with en-suite showers and king-sized beds, and a third with a full bathroom, king bed, and a private office with sofa bed. The adjacent cottages offer further accommodation, including extra beds, a kitchenette, a dining/library area, and bathrooms, one with a jacuzzi.

Outside, the villa features a covered dining terrace, manicured gardens, and a private swimming pool with breathtaking countryside views. Guests can relax or explore the area's scenic trails, vineyards, lakes, and nearby towns like Siena.

Villa Delle Pietrose is the perfect blend of rustic charm, modern luxury, and prime location for a true Tuscan escape.

Location & Local Information

A holiday at a family-owned wine estate in Montepulciano, Tuscany, promises a magical escape steeped in history, fine wine, and stunning scenery.

Your base, Villa Delle Pietrose, is a peaceful sanctuary combining rustic elegance with modern comfort, set among vineyard-clad hills. The estate, known for its excellent wines, offers tours and tastings that provide a fascinating look into traditional winemaking.

Just a short drive away, Montepulciano’s medieval charm awaits. Stroll cobbled streets lined with boutiques, cafes, and artisanal shops, and explore historic landmarks like Palazzo Comunale and Montepulciano Cathedral.

Nature lovers can enjoy scenic walks and bike rides through the rolling countryside, discovering olive groves, vineyard views, and the beauty of rural Tuscany.

Only 15km away, the UNESCO-listed town of Pienza offers Renaissance beauty and gourmet delights. Wander through its picturesque lanes, visit Palazzo Piccolomini and Piazza Pio II, and savour the town's world-famous pecorino cheese.

With Villa Delle Pietrose as your tranquil retreat, and the cultural gems of Montepulciano, Pienza, and Siena within easy reach, your Tuscan adventure promises to be both enriching and unforgettable.
