Location & Local Information

Mer Vue is in a hillside setting above the beautiful Plage de l'Escalet, around 6km from the southern-most point of Plage de Pampelonne and 11km from Saint-Tropez.

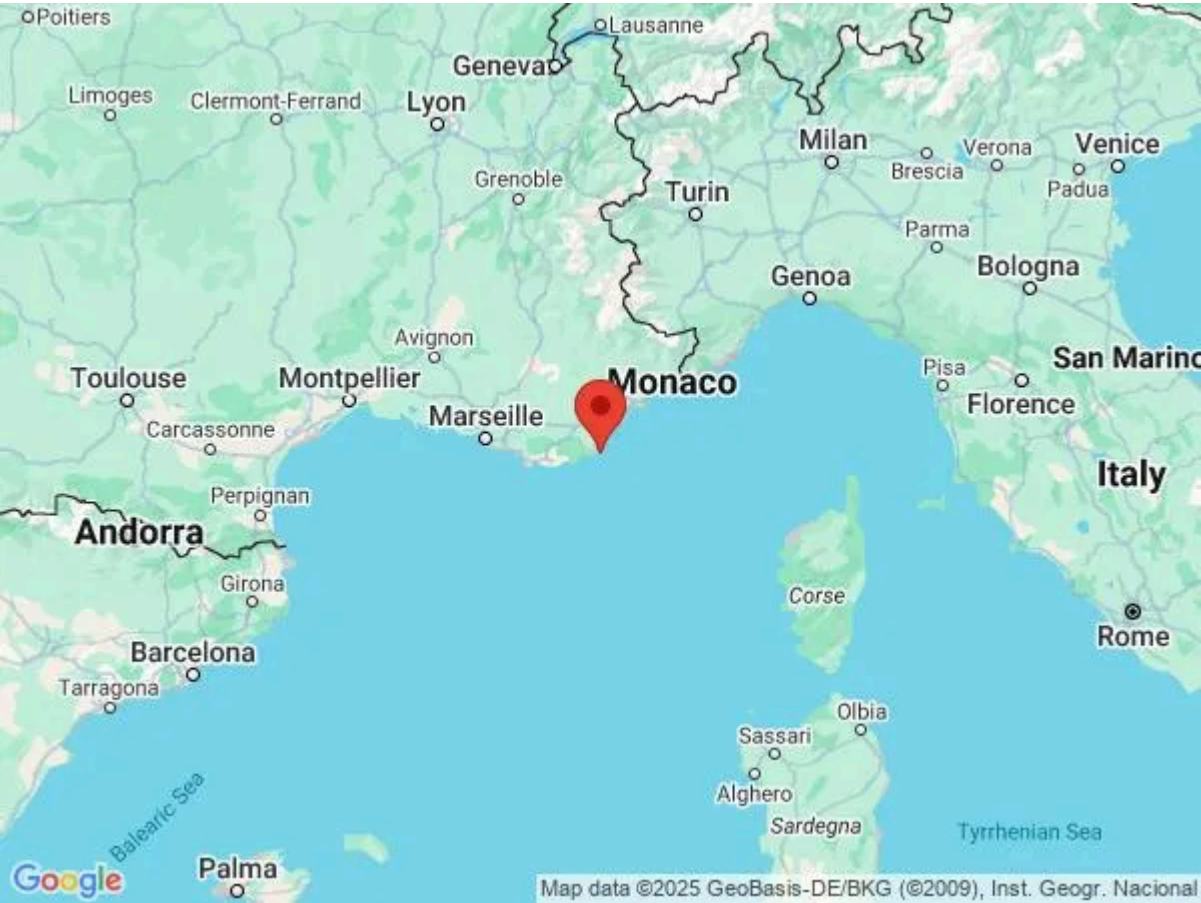

It's a short walk down the hill to Plage de l'Escalet, a pretty sheltered bay with clear water ideal for snorkelling and swimming. A coastal hiking path leads past small coves and beautiful Mediterranean nature towards Cap Taillat for yet more incredible scenery.

The nearest village is hilltop Ramatuelle (5.5km) with its narrow cobbled lanes, bougainvillea-clad houses, restaurant terraces, little art galleries and impressive 16th century church.

Bypassing the village, there are summer beachside restaurants along Plage de Pampelonne, just over a 10-minute drive away, including some of Saint Tropez' most prestigious beach clubs. The 5km long sandy shores of Plage de Pampelonne are also known for seasonal watersports – look out for stand-up paddle boarding, kayaks, and pedal boats alongside jet-skiing and windsurfing.

Take time to experience Saint-Tropez (11km), a former fishing village with colourful houses and a medieval warren of narrow lanes with boutiques, bars, high-end restaurants and café terraces as well as the vibrant twice-weekly market at Place des Lices. Boat trips depart Saint-Tropez for tours of the French Riviera coast or pick up a ferry towards Port Grimaud and Sainte-Maxime.

Other picture-perfect villages include hilltop Grimaud (19km) and Gassin (11km), both enjoying sweeping views of Saint-Tropez bay. Take time to drive to La Croix Valmer and its wonderful vineyards, close to one of the region's most idyllic beaches, Plage de Gigaro (12.5km) and yet more opportunities for coastal walks.
